Waste transfer site debate rumbles on

■ STUDENTS from the Sir John Colfox School in Bridport held a fair at the weekend to raise money to help build a school in Africa - see page 6 & 7.

by Tom Glover

PROPOSED sites for the Bridport Waste Transfer Station have met with a mixed response as campaigners air their views ahead of public exhibitions.

Symondsbury Parish Council has spoken out against proposed sites on the A35 claiming that objections there would be "legion" in comparison to Gore Cross.

Chairman of the St Andrew's Residents Association Simon Williams however, says that a station at Gore Cross would "stick out like a sore thumb" and that sites should be judged on planning issues not personal grievances.

A two-day public exhibition will be held this week to gauge public opinion to the seven proposed sites before a final decision is made by the Dorset County Council's cabinet.

Ahead of these exhibitions Symondsbury Parish Council discussed the locations in a meeting attended by county councillors Geoffrey Brierley, Karl Wal-

ADVENTUROUS teenager Niabh Rowland-Simms, is getting ready for a trip of a lifetime volunteering in Cambodia by brushing up on the native language Khmer.

Unfazed Niabh has seen her original destination of India switched by The Project Trust - which sends young volunteers around the world - and is relishing the "amazing opportunity" she'll undertake later this year.

Whilst there she will immerse herself in the culture for 12 months, whilst helping the community delivering aid to children with HIV/AIDS.

The 18-year-old is currently raising the £3,000 needed to make the trip a reality, by conducting sponsored events including bag packs and car washes.

She is also writing to local businesses and more charitable trusts who she hopes will donate in kind. Anybody can donate to her total online if they wish by logging onto: www.justgiving.com/niabh-rowland-simms.

■ WHAT inspired you to volunteer for Project Trust?

Seeing my brother make such an impact on the lives of the people in a small village in Guyana was what really inspired me to do the same. Project Trust seemed to be a much more personal Gap Year organisation and they set up really amazing and worthwhile projects across the world; the selection course means that they get to know you individually so you are sent to the right country and project for you. The work the volunteers do is so valuable to the community and such an amazing thing to be a part of so I knew I wanted to volunteer too.

■ WHAT aspects are you looking forward to in your up-coming trip to Cambodia?

I can't wait to start teaching the students. A friend at school and I teach a boy from Thailand for an hour every week and seeing him progress has been so rewarding - spending a whole year with these students, teaching in a real class environment is so exciting but also really frightening. This project has a lot of scope for creating extra-curricular activities, involving children outside of the school as well so I'm already thinking about clubs I could start. I'm also really looking forward to being in such an incredible country. It's history is so immense and the culture really fascinating. Some of the work will be really tough, like delivering aid to children with HIV/AIDS but it is such beneficial help to the community I really can't wait to start. I'm also excited to learn some Khmer.

■ WHICH country in the world you would most like to visit and why?

After I found out I was going to be living in Cambodia for a year I researched the country, read up on its history, its people and its landscape and, as cheesy as it may sound, I don't think at the moment there's a country I'd rather visit than the one I'm lucky enough to be living in next year. I would obviously still love to visit India some day and also Peru seems like an amazing country but I really think Cambodia seems incredible.

■ IS there anything you will miss most during your volunteering gap year?

My littlest sister is only five - I'll really miss her and the rest of my family and friends. Although also I've decided to have my last meal before I leave as a Christmas dinner because I know I'll miss not being here for Christmas.

■ WHICH career path are you hoping to follow?

I've accepted a place at UWIC to study Speech and Language Therapy so hopefully I'll finish the four-year course as a qualified Speech Therapist.

60 SECOND INTERVIEW

■ WHEN on holiday, are you an adventure seeker or a laze on the beach with a good book type of person?

A bit of both I think! I love relaxing with a book but mostly after I've tired myself out with something else. I can't really laze out in the sun for too long with my skin, unless I'm plastered with sun cream, because I burn, unfortunately.

■ ONE of your hobbies is baking. Have you a signature cake you prefer to bake?

I love baking cheesecakes but it's quite a lengthy process so I normally stick to cupcakes.

■ WHICH three artists will you up-load to your iPod ready for your trip, and why?

Florence and the Machine because it reminds me of Glas-tonbury last year so it will make me all nostalgic. Adele, because her voice is really calm and I could sleep to it on the plane. The XX for my third choice I think because they have the most relaxing album that would be so good to listen to after a difficult day.

■ WHAT is your favourite genre of book, and what is your all time favourite and why?

I like most genres really, it depends on my mood. My favourite book is probably Angela's Ashes because it's well written, has some really funny parts but is also really moving - I think I cried about three times when I read it. I couldn't read it again though, at least not for a while, it's emotionally draining.

■ JUST before your trip, what three things will you pack first and why?

A camera, a journal and a pen, so I don't forget any of it.

■ WHAT would your ideal weekend involve?

Not having to worry about revision, Probably playing frisbee and swimming in the sea at the beach all Saturday with my friends and having a barbecue and then just relaxing on Sunday, taking my younger sister to the park and reading.

Safer street crossing becomes a priority

A COLLISION between a vulnerable person and a car has caused Bridport officials to speed up their actions to implement safety measures in the town.

The collision near the Fisherman's Arms Day Care Centre has once again brought calls from police, councillors and care workers for a pedestrian crossing to be introduced on South Street.

by Paul Crompton

Bridport's Town Council Plans Committee discussed the issue following the accident on April 12th, which saw a 40 year-old day care centre user involved in the collision.

Vulnerable people and wheelchair users at the centre currently face up to a 15-minute diversion around the town to attend adult education classes in St Mary's Hall on the opposite side of the road.

Some service users at the centre also need to cross the road to get to work experience placements at the Riverside Day Centre.

Day service officer at the centre, Colleen Hammer, said: "The crossing is definitely needed; it's been on the cards for some years.

"I think the service users here will use it quite often as now they have to go up town across to the library then back to St Mary's Hall which is quite a walk, especially in winter when it's raining.

"They do it at the moment because when we do the risk assessment we advise them to do the dog leg because there is no crossing, but most of the people are independent in the community and so we only hope they carry out that safety advice when we are not there."

Bridport councillors heard the county highways and transport agency had asked the town council for recommendations over the proposed crossing.

Town clerk Bob Gillis said at the plans meeting the accident had sparked a reaction from the county highways transport department who would look at it if they had a request from the town council.

Councillor Phil Lathey said it was not just about the crossing but the increased speed of traffic going down South Street, which added to the vulnerable people being at more risk.

Councillor Maggie Ray said: "Because the road is so dangerous people cannot cross there. We have so many vulnerable people there and people will cross haphazardly. The safety of Bridport people is a concern."

Bridport PC Scott McGregor said he would back safety measures if a survey confirmed a need for one. He said: "If the highways or council committee conduct a survey which looked at the impact a crossing would have in the whole area and on the safety of the public in that area and still felt a crossing was needed then I am for it."

■ A NEW crossing could cost up to £70,000 and would depend on a survey indicating the amount and type of traffic and pedestrians using a 50 metre area either side of the proposed site.

Dorset County Council engineers would then determine the most appropriate and safest measure, which could be nothing, or to provide a new state of the art puffin pedestrian crossing or a central refuge.

Each site requires an individual solution, with requests placed on a prioritised list to determine how quickly they are implemented. Some can take years to be built.

Town councillor censured over planning application

A BRIDPORT councillor and building contractor has been censured for taking advantage of his role to push through a planning application.

District Councillor Mark Parsons was deemed to have tried to use his position for his own advantage after making a planning application for a property in West Bexington, of which he was not the owner.

Councillor Parsons put forward the application in his name, on the understanding that the owner would pay the application fee, in the hope of securing the building contract if planning were approved.

Councillor Parsons did so knowing that the application would then go straight to the Development Control Committee of the WDDC bypassing delegated authorities. The application was also made in the knowledge that the owner had had similar previous applications refused.

by Tom Glover

The application was made in August last year and was refused in November.

West Dorset District Council's Monitoring Officer, Roger Greene, said: "Councillor Mark Parsons appeared before the Standards Committee on April 30th, following allegations that he had breached section six of West Dorset District Council's Code of Conduct. This section deals with a councillor seeking to use their position as an elected member inappropriately to secure an advantage for themselves or another person.

"The complaint alleged that when applying for planning permission for a property in West Bexington, Councillor Parsons was attempting to use his position as a councillor inappropriately.

"In this case, the committee decided there had been a breach of the code and Councillor Parsons was dealt by way of censure."

Councillor Parsons commented: "I acted correctly as far as making an application to build is concerned.

"It is very difficult when you are trying to perform

■ CENSURED: Councillor Mark Parsons

your duty as a councillor as well as run a business especially when that is a building business.

"As far as I am concerned the matter is now done and dusted."

Councillor Parsons is now temporarily removing himself from the town council's plans committee for unrelated issues.

The town council will be considering its appointments tomorrow (Thursday) evening.

Waste transfer site exhibition lace and district councillor Gillian Summers.

Chairman of the council, Amanda Streatfield said: "The council firmly believes that the sites are unsuitable for an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty (AONB) at the gateway to Bridport, and because of the increased risk to traffic travelling onto and along the already dangerous stretch between Miles Cross and the Eype junction on the A35."

Speaking after the meeting Symondsbury parish clerk David Wragg added: "A lot of people would like to see it end up at Gore Cross. From our point of view it is the most sensible place for it.

"The disaster record on that road acts as a deterrent to local people. One of the Miles Cross sites is directly opposite houses, it is a bad junction as it is and anybody taking rubbish into a site like that would be taking their life into their own hands.

"A waste transfer station there would be highly visible and people don't want to look at that when they come into the town. As and when a planning application is made our objections would be legion compared with Gore Cross."

Chairman of the St Andrew's Residents Association Simon Williams has said that the proposed sites should be evaluated on planning issues, basing a decision on the policy of concealment, proximity to housing, government policies, planning history and planning gain. He added: "We are going to look at the exhibition before we make a decision and we will base our decision on planning issues and not because it is in one backyard or another.

"We all know the A35 is a dangerous road but a site here would mean an improved junction. I really don't know why people are complaining about it. Why there has been this persistence on Gore Cross I don't know. This is not a naturally wooded area and if they start sticking up trees to conceal it then it will stick out like a sore thumb."

Bridport Town Councillor Karl Wallace added: "It is very important that people attend the public consultation days to express their opinions to Dorset County Council about whether there should be a waste transfer station.

"Whether you live in West Bay, Bradpole, Bridport or Symondsbury please come along and let your voice be heard.

"If the current household waste centre in South Street does not get planning permission to remain where it is, then we need to have a temporary centre here in Bridport.

"The alternative is that the people of Bridport will end up having to travel a long distance to safely dispose of their waste, for up to three years, while we wait for the new waste transfer station.

"I have real concerns that this may lead some people to dispose of their waste in an inappropriate manner, not to mention the environmental impact of people travelling much longer distances."

The public exhibitions will be at the Town Hall this Friday, May 21st from 11am to 6pm and Saturday, May 22nd from 9:30am to 12:30pm.

Following the public consultation the seven shortlisted sites at Broomhills Farm; Eype Junction; Gore Cross - north of Watford Lane; Green Lane; Lilac Farm; Miles Cross 1 and Miles Cross 2, will be evaluated on a number of factors including transport infrastructure and access, flood risk, drainage and water quality, landscape character and visual impact, and the extent to which the land supports the area's planning policies.

The results of the assessment will be reported to the county council's cabinet, who will then make the final decision about which site will go forward for a planning application.

Two weeks of art celebration

A FORTNIGHT of celebrating Dorset's finest artists begins in the county next week.

Now in its 20th year Dorset Art Weeks (DAW) will see over 800 artists turning this greenest of counties into a riot of red and yellow with thousands of banners and road signs pointing to artists' studios, galleries and exhibitions in over 350 different venues.

"Almost all of the artists, designers or makers will be on hand to help you engage with their work, keen to talk to visitors about the extraordinary range of materials, traditions and skills that inform their work," said Jem Main, Director of DAW.

"Above all, we are working hard to produce a lively and interesting event that will appeal to everyone, whatever their knowledge and level of interest."

The standard opening times are 10am to 1pm and 2pm to 5pm. Full details are available in the Dorset Art Weeks brochure or online at www.dorsetartweeks.co.uk.

■ ART WEEKS - "Fish and Blue Vase" by Marzia Colonna, one of the exhibiting artists.

Council contracts up for tender

WEST Dorset businesses are being giving the chance to secure contracts worth £95million from the Dorset County Council.

The contracts, running over the next four years, will involve repairs and maintenance on all council properties across the county and should provide the council with significant efficiency savings.

Unlike previous tendering arrangements, successful businesses will be given long-term contracts instead of one-off deals. This will ensure the council is getting the best value for money possible from a number of selected firms.

And although any organisations can apply for council contracts, this new way of working is designed to support the local economy by encouraging small to medium local organisations and the evaluation process supports this.

Councillor for Corporate Resources, Spencer Flower said: "At present the council buys minor works, repairs and maintenance services through a large number of contractors/suppliers. By working in partnership with other local authorities and introducing a new way of choosing suppliers, we can maintain long term relationships with the providers who offer us value for money."

To access the system go to www.dorsetforyou.com and type "Proactis" into the search box, where you will be directed to the relevant page. There you will be able to register your interest in being invited to tender by submitting your details and identifying the category/categories of products, services or works you wish to be considered for.

For more information, please contact: Chris Hibberd on 01305 225270 or Sally Pizzie on 01305 221265

More recycling

A MOUNTAIN of paper and cardboard has been saved from landfill thanks to green businesses in West Dorset recycling more than 100 extra tonnes of waste in the last year.

Recent figures released by West Dorset District Council show that businesses have recycled more than 500 tonnes of waste in the last two years, 345 tonnes of that recycled last year (April 2009-March 2010).

Delight as play area opens at last

■ BIRDS EYE VIEW - Nathan Baxter, Callum O'Donahue and Debbie Bird reach the top of the crow's nest

THE WEST Bay play area finally opened last week after almost four years of hard work from Bridport teenagers.

The play area was designed over three years ago by young people who were involved in the first Summentor Mentoring Programme, a project run by Bridport Youth Centre in partnership with the Sir John Colfox School.

The project aimed to create Dorset's first teenage playground that could cater for children, and adults, of all ages.

The play area was opened last week as part of the mayor's civic walk-about.

Young people who had been involved with the project were presented with certificates recognising their efforts before 17-year old Debbie Bird, who has been involved with the project since the beginning spoke to the invited guests.

She said: "I am thrilled that the play area is at last open. We have all been working towards this for many years. It is meant for teenagers, but everyone can use it. My gran says she can't wait to have a go on it. Thank you to Arthur Woodgate, Daryl Chambers, Maggie Ray and the mayor and everyone else who helped to make it possible."

Arthur Woodgate, creator of the Summentor Project, and founder and chairman of local charity BYPAT, which has continued to work with the young people towards achieving the play area, added: "After three years work, everyone's feeling very good about having eventually got there, thanks to a town council that's always ready to support the young people of our community and to work with them towards realising their aspirations, and thanks particularly to the unfaltering determination of town surveyor, Daryl Chambers"

The unique play area has been designed to reflect its setting on the Jurassic Coast and the area's history of rope making. The purpose built design, by local company Huck Play, is based on a "ship" wrecked on the rocks and broken into three pieces, with robust climbing structures and swings.

Councillor Maggie Ray has been part of the play area steering group, she said: "I think it is absolutely brilliant. The young people have been involved and have stuck with it for so long.

"It shows great determination from the young people and just shows that if you trust them then they will see it through and won't let you down.

"It took a long time to get through the planning phase but the actual project itself only took three months and that is a tribute to Daryl (Chambers) who really pushed it through, and even rolled his sleeves up and got involved with the installation.

"Everyone who has seen it since has been astonished."

The project is supported by Bridport Young Person's Action Trust (BYPAT), Bridport Town Council, West Dorset District Council, the Dorset County Council's Play-builder Programme, Dorset County Council's Youth Capital Fund and the Bridport Charter Fair.

Bridport students raise funds for Kenyan school

■ Karen Ackerman tries her luck on Crystal Durow, Elize Bristow and Abbie Davies tombola stall

■ GRAHAM and Clare Chamberlain pick up a bargain from Mark Grey's bric-a-brac stall

TEENAGERS from a Bridport school have been raising funds once again as they bid to reach their target to take part in a once-in-a-lifetime adventure.

Ten students from Sir John Colfox School raised £411 during a table-top fair towards their goal of £3,500 each needed to help a local community in Kenya.

The group of students are heading out to Africa next summer to help build a school and work on conservation projects with the organisation Camp International.

Fundraisers Jack Bowskill, 15, Mark Grey, 15, and William Russell, 15, kicked off their fundraising with a sponsored swim at the leisure centre and the group have done a supermarket bag pack.

Jack said: "I think it's going to be an amazing experience, there's no other time when we can do it, it will be Christmas then we are off to college. It should be the experience of a lifetime."

"This is the first time I've got involved in a massive fundraising project like this. I'm kind of nervous, I'm normally quite quiet and not used to going and asking people for help but this has made me more confident."

"Personally I'm looking forward to helping the people over there and knowing I've done some good. Not a lot of people can say they did that."

The other adventurers are Abbie Davies, 14; Crystal Durow, 16; Elize Bristow, 15; Rachael Andrews, 15; Iona Parker, 15 and Katie Banbury, 16.

Having started at Christmas the group has already been helped by the Rotary Club.

The group's next event will be May 30th when they will be running a stall at the companion dog show run by the Rotary Club at the Melplash Showground.

Family fun and music at 'The Event 2'

BRADPOLE will once again host a festival of family fun and music this year with the return of "The Event".

This year's festival will begin in the afternoon with a family fun day at The King's Head before the cream of Bridport's local musicians arrive for an evening of entertainment.

The event will be raising funds for Dorset Residential Homes, providing housing for people with learning difficulties, as well as supporting the street children in Calcutta and the Bridport Burma Appeal.

"The Event 2" comes to Bradpole on Saturday, July 10th. For further information, please contact Lyn Jones on 01308 425683 or email lynlidiard@btinternet.com.

Group looking for a leading philosopher

THERE is a Buddhist proverb that says: "When the student is ready, the master appears", but it is not working out that way for Bridport & District U3A.

Eight members have signed up to join a philosophy group but group co-ordinator Lesley Archibald has had no luck, so far, in her search for someone to lead the group.

She has issued an appeal: "Is there anyone out there who can help and come to the rescue of these eight very keen students?"

U3A also covers Beaminster, Burton Bradstock and surrounding villages. Anyone who can help or wants to find out more about what is involved should contact Lesley on Lesley_Archibald@btopenworld.com.

Students join the Wessex Walk

STUDENTS from The Sir John Colfox School are nursing their blisters having completed the Wessex Walk for Save the Children.

A total of 36 students joined teachers on the annual 15-mile trek from Whitesheet Hill in Shaftsbury to the Guildhall in Salisbury.

Leading the way this year was Wendy Robertshaw who ran the route in two hours accompanied by her sister Cynthia on a bicycle, leaving the rest of the walkers trailing behind.

All newcomers to the walk were pleased with their times and returning walkers were happy to improve on their previous performances.

Mrs Ethna Jenkins

RARING TO GO - Students prepare for their 15-mile trek for Save the Children and Miss Dianne Ashman provided a rest stop for everyone on the way and teachers Lucy Prince, Nina Spicer and Hannah Brown completed the walk with the students.

"I am always really impressed by how much time and effort our students give to helping others", said headteacher Kay Taylor. "They show a real compassion for others in less fortunate circumstances than themselves which is truly admirable.

"Our link with 'Save the Children' is very important to us and we are always keen to support these kinds of events."

Now that the blisters are shrinking and the legs recovering the students are busy collecting their sponsorship money.

Assessment tests go ahead in Bridport primaries

It was business as usual for primary schools in Bridport last week despite other schools across the country boycotting exams for 11-year-olds.

The Standard Assessment Tests (SATS), began on Monday and ran throughout the week. A number of schools nationally decided to shun the exams in protest against the way the results are used to collate league tables.

Loders Primary School headteacher Mike Kite said: "Few headteachers oppose testing. It's been a valuable, objective tool for as long as anyone can remember. The issue is with using test results to produce league tables, which rank schools irrespective of size, cohort differences, catchment areas and their many other individual characteristics. It turns testing into a pointless competition instead of a useful diagnostic process.

"I note that a few schools elsewhere in the country are boycotting the SATs but testing their pupils using last year's papers. How very sensible! They will have used a good assessment tool to aid accurate reporting without a silly fuss about their school's perceived 'reputation'."

Professor Ian Tracey studied the organ in Liverpool and at Trinity College, London, where he was awarded a Fellowship. He later continued his studies in Paris with both Andre Isoir and Jean Langlais.

Ian became organist at Liverpool Cathedral in 1980, although his role changed in 2007 when the Dean & Chapter created the post of 'Organist Titulaire' for him, allowing more time for playing, lecturing, recording and writing. Ian has played most of the major venues in the UK and many in Europe, the USA and Australia during 25 extensive tours.

He is a regular soloist at the Proms and has recorded for EMI, Priory and Chandos. He also regularly conducts and is an examiner and adjudicator.

The first swans of summer

FIVE fluffy balls of fun mark Abbotsbury Swannery's first baby swan arrivals of 2010.

Mother and cygnets are all doing well and staff are now preparing to welcome hundreds more.

Tradition has it that the Benedictine Monks who owned the Swannery between 1,000AD and the 1540s believed that the first cygnet signalled the first day of summer.

Abbotsbury swanherd Dave Wheeler, who can trace his job line back to a Benedictine Monk called William Squillor in 1393, said "I feel like a proud dad. This is always a very exciting time at the Swannery.

"They are the first of several hundred cygnets which will be continuously hatching now until mid-June.

"I have watched this happen for nearly 30 years and I still find it amazing."

Abbotsbury Swannery is the only colony of nesting mute swans open to the public in the world with up to 1,000 free-flying birds.

MARATHON woman Sarah Horton has donated £1,100 to the Alzheimer's Society after completing the world's first Kilomathon.

Boots employee Sarah made the presentation to the Alzheimer's Society in the Bridport store last week where, together with the Lyme Regis store, staff have been collecting donations.

Boots has also added a further £500 to her fundraising total taken the final amount to £1,600.

Sarah took part in the world's first 'Kilomathon' road race, staged between Nottingham University and Pride Park, Derby, a total distance of 26.2km or 16.3 miles, in memory of her father Michael Emmett.

Sarah completed the course in 2 hours 40 minutes and was even interviewed by Sky TV for her efforts.

Area Fundraiser Manager of the Alzheimer's Society, Caryn Davies, collected the donation on Wednesday of last week.

The Bucky-Doo puts to sea

HUNDREDS of people braved bad weather to witness the historical launch of Bridport's first gig boat. The boat was blessed by Bridport's vicar The Reverend Peter Edwards and christened by the town's Mayor, Councillor Martin Ray before being pushed down the West Bay slipway for its maiden journey.

It marks the end of a

by Paul Crompton

year's hard work by Bridport Gig Club to launch the £13,500 fibreglass Bucky-Doo boat and the start of fundraising for a bespoke wooden racing gig.

President of BGC, Mike Carter, said: "It's good to introduce a community sport to West Bay because this coastline is a wonderful amenity; there's lots of fishermen and private boats but no community activity in the sea.

"It was a fantastic event, really well attended and is the product of a year's hard work. Beyond this we want to build a racing gig and hope to be doing this again next spring.

"It's important to stress we still have to secure the funding to build a racing gig.

"We've got established teams to both the west and east of us and it's entirely appropriate that West Bay plugs the gap in between."

Mr Carter also voiced the hope of getting a Jurassic Coast competition going between Weymouth and Lyme Regis - both of whom showed support at the launch.

The club now needs to raise £21,000 for the boat and thousands more for other equipment including oars and trailer.

The club needs to match fund a £10,000 grant from Sport England by August. They hope to hold a fundraising pledge auction later this year.

■ BLESS THIS BOAT: Bridport Gig Club members watch as the mayor, Councillor Martin Ray and wife Maggie christen the town's first gig.

THE marine tradition of christening a new boat was given a special Bridport twist when sponsors Palmers Brewery used beer instead of champagne. Palmers Brewery director Cleve Palmer (left) used its Dorset Gold beer to mark their sponsorship of Bridport's new Gig Rowing Club.

Sponsorship of £7,000 has just helped BGC buy its first training gig, making it the 55th gig-racing club in the south west.

A gig is a fast boat used historically to speed pilots out to ships coming into harbour. In recent years, the sport of gig racing has grown massively in popularity in the south west of England.

Christened Bucky-Doo, the boat is a 32-ft long and will be used for schooling members in the art of racing.

■ BON VOYAGE: The moment when a year's hard work finally saw Bridport's first gig placed in the water.

Enthusiastic response to shared ownership homes

by Tom Glover

FIRST time buyers in Bridport flocked to a Magna Housing open day to find out more about the affordable homes being built at Dibdin View.

The open day on Thursday of last week was attended by around 80 people, with 38 of them registering a keen interest in the 17 shared ownership properties at the development at Flaxhayes, North Allington.

Neil Allsopp, who is project manager for Charter SW Ltd, Magna's development arm, said the event was busy throughout the afternoon.

"We had considerable interest from local families and everyone wanted to know the process and what happens next."

Among those attending were Stephen Courtney and Geraldine Collins, from Bridport. Stephen is currently living with his mother and Geraldine is in private rented accommodation but the couple would like a home of their own.

"We've got a mortgage in place and a healthy deposit," Stephen said, as he and Geraldine looked at the location plans.

"We saw they were building up there but didn't realise it was behind River Vale, and the houses look nice."

Local solicitors and independent financial advisors were on hand to give advice, along with staff from West Dorset District Council and Magna.

Work on the £8million project began in March and is due to be completed by the end of March 2011.

Shared ownership homes at the development will be a mix of two and three bedroom houses with priority given to buyers with Bridport connections.

Potential shared ownership buyers are likely to acquire in the region of a 40 per cent share of the property's market value.

All properties will be built to the Code for Sustainable Homes Level 4, which ensures that homes are built to be highly energy efficient and with a high level of sustainability.

■ FIRST TIME BUYERS - Stephen Courtney and Geraldine Collins look through the plans

All the people who registered their interest on the day, plus those who were previously registered on the South West Homes 'Homebuy' list, will receive a letter giving them a formal opportunity to apply for one of these homes as the build programme progresses over the summer.

Lights protest continues

DEMONSTRATIONS at traffic lights in Chideock are set to continue following meetings between protestors, politicians and police.

Protest organiser Tony Fuller met with West Dorset MP Oliver Letwin on Friday morning of last week to discuss the issue affecting the village and then in the afternoon he met Bridport Police Sergeant Jon Bleasdale.

Mr Fuller is now hoping to tackle the pollution issue by fighting for the introduction of average speed cameras enforcing the 30mph speed limit between the existing speed cameras.

He said: "I do feel, and so does Mr Letwin, that a vehicle testing station will deter some of the traffic and arranging a link between the speed cameras will also make the route less attractive.

"I have proposed an alternative route along the A303 which will only add eight minutes to drivers' journeys and hopefully they will adopt this instead."

He added: "The police told me they had taken the demonstration to the highest level and could not find anything wrong with what we are doing. They have told us they will make someone available for each protest to protect us from any irate drivers."

A public meeting to discuss the traffic problems will be held at the village hall this Friday (May 21st) at 7pm.

ViewLetters An open invitation

■ I WRITE regarding our recent demonstrations in Chideock and various comments quoted in local newspapers.

I find it such a shame that people comment knowing only half of the story, from rumour or personal annoyance, because of this I make the following offer.

If anyone, for or against what we are trying to achieve, cares to come to my house (my phone number is 01297 489477) they will receive a welcome, a cup of tea or coffee and we can discuss their grievances and also enlighten them as to our concerns.

Maybe they will show an alternative we have not thought about.

This should and could be in an agreeable manner but if aggression is their wish then please stay away.

Transport meeting open to the public

HOSPITAL car services, active travel maps and new rail and bus timetables will be up for discussion at tomorrow's (Thursday) Western Area Transport Action Group (WATAG) meeting.

The bi-monthly meeting is open to all members of the public interested in public transport matters.

The meeting will start with a review of matters raised at the previous meeting which will include the future of the Hospital Car Service to Dorchester Hospital and the production of "Active Travel" maps for the area, aimed at cyclists and walkers.

With the summer schedules due to start towards the end of May, there will also be representatives of the main rail and bus operators giving updates on their services.

Also at the meeting will be Dorset County Council's Dorset Passenger Transport department.

There will also be time at the meeting for a "democratic moment", an opportunity for anyone to raise any transport issues and ideas on the future direction of WATAG.

The meeting will be held at 6:30pm on Thursday, May 20th at the Friends Meeting House.

For further details, please contact the WATAG Secretary, Mrs Joy Michaud, on telephone number (01308) 897892.

BUSINESS FOREVER!!

Business gained from referrals is recognised to be the best and most cost effective way to find new customers. To be recommended to somebody is the business opportunity we all desire. It is for this reason that business networking has become so important to growing companies and why BNI [Business Network International] as an organisation is so successful. BNI is a business referral group that is dedicated to bringing local business people together to network and is solely focused on generating business for its members. Members not only find business opportunities that they require but also services that they might need in running their organisations.

Recognising that word-of-mouth marketing is the strongest and most cost effective form of promotion BNI meetings provide a structured and proven environment for local companies to spread the word about the products and services that they provide. Investing in the structure, training and support system offered can be like having up to 40 sales people working for you. Your fellow members will be carrying your cards and recommending your business, without you paying any extra salaries or commission. On average in 2009, UK members saw £27k come into their business from referrals passed to them at BNI meetings.

HOW WOULD YOU LIKE TO GET MORE BUSINESS FOR YOURSELF, WHILE AT THE SAME TIME PREVENTING YOUR COMPETITORS DOING THE SAME?

The most unique and exciting thing about BNI is that only ONE representative from each trade, profession or business can join a group. The incredible advantage this has over your competition is obvious. It also means that meaningful and fruitful relationships can be built within the group, based on encouragement and the will for everyone involved to succeed and benefit.

What other members say about BNI across the UK

"BNI doesn't just complement our work.. it is a major part of our work!! BNI has fast become our best client."

Phil Berg, Flooring & Carpet Contractor, Hemel Hempstead

"In the first year, my company gained £165,000 of new contracts. Since then, by offering the best service possible to my referred clients and secondary referrals, we have now exceeded £3,000,000 in ongoing contracts"

Phil Brumfitt, Windsor Catering Equipment, Wirral

"Trust, the cornerstone of our business, builds far more rapidly within BNI than in the world outside, our first year was such a financial success that we have already joined a second Bristol Chapter.

Richard Graves, Website Designer, Bristol

"Over 85% of our turnover in the first three months of our third year as a member of BNI is directly attributable to original BNI referrals"

Carl Barton, Im-Press Promotions, West Yorkshire

"In my two years as a member of BNI, I've learnt new skills, taken my start up business from 6-56 clients and doubled my turnover - I couldn't have done this without BNI"

Dave Ogden, Jameson Lomax, IT Support, Nottingham

BNI in Bridport

The Bridport BNI was started in January 2010 and has already an active group of member who are benefiting:

"Being new to the area, this is a great way to meet new business contacts and be part of organisation that is purely focused on generating business"

Chris Lavis, Chris Lavis & Co . (Chartered Accountants)

"My brother has belonged to a BNI group in Hertfordshire for many years and swears by it.. It has been an excellent source of good profitable business for him .. hence the reason I actively looked for a group in the area and was delighted when the one in Bridport started"

JJ Asplins

"Since joining I have already had a number of very good referrals that have turned into good business. Being based in Crewkerne it is proving to be an excellent way of gaining new business out of my immediate area.. far more effective than advertising"

Civic inspiration from Bridport

NEW initiatives were at the forefront of the civic walkabout as the Mayor Councillor Martin Ray showed off Bridport's finest to Dorset's leading dignitaries.

A year's worth of innovative initiatives were admired and envied by mayors from other towns as the walkabout visited the Bridport Local Area Skills Training centre (BLAST), the new West

by Tom Glover

Bay play area, St Michael's Studios and the Community Orchard.

The day began at the council offices in Mountfield where students from The Sir John Colfox School explained their new rights-respecting initiative based on Unicef's Charter for the Rights of the Child. They explained that with rights come responsibilities and the need to respect other peoples' rights.

A visit to BLAST then showed how young people were receiving further education in the town without having to travel to colleges in Weymouth and Yeovil. Bridport's latest affordable housing development, Dibdin View, was next on the itinerary before a coach trip to West Bay where the new play area was opened.

Lunch at The Bull Hotel was followed with a stroll to view Bridport's street market before the visiting mayors got a chance to see the town's thriving arts scene down at St Michael's Studio.

After a quick tour from artist Kit Glazier the group headed to Bridport's Community Orchard to see how the project there had developed.

Chair of the Community Orchard Group, Jill Lloyd, and committee member Gill Massey introduced the orchard before the mayors admired the new wildlife pond, which was recently "clay puddled" by local volunteers.

The group then finished their day at Bridport Town Hall where town clerk Bob Gillis rounded off the walkabout by explaining the plans to revamp the town hall with a £600,000 grant from the Heritage Lottery fund.

Mayor Martin Ray said: "It was a good way to finish my stint as mayor as it was one of the last things I will do in the role. Afterwards the other mayors were all really generous with their praise.

"They said the Bridport Town Council had done so well and they were all really inspired and wanted to get back to their own towns and do the same."

Pupils can vote for their favourite new authors

YOUNG people across Dorset have a chance to vote for their best debut children's author.

The opportunity comes under the New Horizons Book Award run by the Schools Library Service and sponsored by MicroLibrarian Systems which also gives Dorset children a crack at writing their own blockbuster in a search for a future debut author.

Shortlisted titles have just been revealed for the author award which is for first time published authors of a fiction book for children published in 2008, 2009 or 2010.

Weymouth's Budmouth Technology College resources centre manager Sylvia Knake said: "We regularly shadow national awards and the School Library Service's Dorset prize is something that our students will be really enjoy getting stuck into.

"We have a very popular reading group ranging from year seven up to sixth form and they're looking forward to getting hold of the books and putting together some reviews."

School reading groups and library Chatterbooks groups helped come up with the short list of potential winners for the best debut author prize.

They include Katie Davies for The Great Hamster Massacre, Michelle Harrison for The 13 Treasures, Suzanne La Fleur for Love Aubrey, Alex Scarrow for TimeRiders and David Walliams for The Boy in the Dress.

SLS manager Alison Burgess said: "All schools with pupils 9-13 will be invited to take part in the award, vote for their favourite book from the shortlist, and join the creative writing competition.

"The Schools Library Service will visit schools to promote the competition while there will also be displays and opportunities for classes to visit libraries across the county."

Children can vote for their favourite book from the shortlist and find out how to enter at www.dorset-foryou.com/newhorizons

An awards ceremony will take place this autumn to announce the winning debut author and best young creative writer.

Free titles have been donated by publishers to the first 20 schools who sign up to take part, while discounts have been organised for schools to buy titles.

Senior post for West Dorset MP

WEST Dorset's re-elected Tory MP has taken a place in the government's newly formed cabinet after successfully negotiating a coalition with the Lib Dems.

Oliver Letwin has been given the role of Minister of State co-ordinating policy and strategy across government departments within the Lib-Con government.

However, the former Shadow

Home Secretary's post will mean he is not able to vote on matters during cabinet meeting, which he is allowed to attend.

The hugely experienced Dr Letwin is a key player in Prime Minister David Cameron's team, and was credited with writing the Tory's pre-election manifesto.

Immediately after his re-election on May 7th, Dr Letwin was whisked off to London to commence talks with the third placed Lib Dems in the country's first hung parliament since 1974.

After the 2005 general election, Dr Letwin took the environment, food and rural affairs brief before being handed the job of reviewing policy across the board and made Chairman of the Conservative research department.

Scholarships to investigate the role of art in promoting the Jurassic Coast

THE merging of art and science will allow potential PhD scholars to apply for the first student grants aimed at promoting the Jurassic Coast to a worldwide audience.

Just three students will be offered the unique chance to investigate how art increases public understanding and enjoyment of the Jurassic Coast, starting this autumn.

They will also see how the Jurassic Coast World Heritage Site's contemporary arts programme has helped engage communities and visitors in understanding the changing coastline.

Jurassic Coast arts coordinator, Daisy Sutcliffe, said: "It is the only one of its kind, allowing us to look into local people, global values, ground-breaking arts and science collaborations, climate change and international partnerships through UNESCO."

"This programme will be used as a case study to look at the role the arts can play in increasing the public understanding of science and heritage management.

"It's important that this is given academically rigorous thought and we hope this partnership will help to inform us about the future management of the site."

The aim of the programme is to encourage residents and visitors to experience the Jurassic Coast and to understand it through arts and cultural experiences.

It also seeks to create a lasting local, national and international economic, cultural and social legacy.

The JCWHS and the University of Exeter's School of Geography secured funding from the Arts and Humanities Research Council for the series of collaborative PhDs.

Dr David Harvey, Geography lecturer at the University, said the PhD studentships would bring together academics, practitioners and policy makers in the arts and sciences field.

The Jurassic Coast is thought to be the only natural World Heritage Site to have an arts strategy. Since the programme's launch in 2008, it has involved 37 artists in over 17 projects with audiences totalling 54,811.

The individual scholarships are: "The Art of Carnival: Communities, Culture and Place"; "Stone Exposures: Photography, Landscape Change and Anticipatory Adaptation"; "Dynamic Arts Practices and the Geographies of World Heritage".

The deadline for applying for the first studentship is this Friday, (May 21st).

To complete an online form, submit personal details, a CV and example of scholarly work visit <http://admin.exeter.ac.uk/academic/scholarships>

There are many reasons why you should love Beaminster. It is a charming, historic and vibrant town with something to offer everybody. The town stands at the head of the valley of the River Brit where many tributaries join together, and the streets tend to follow the line of the streams which in earlier times flowed above ground in many parts. It is surrounded by exceptional countryside and interesting buildings, it boasts a diverse and active community, and has some of the best services and shops you will find.

On these pages we celebrate the many and varied local business and traders in and around the town of Beaminster. If you need to shop it should be high on your list of destinations and would make a great day out. You will find gift shops, ironmongers, arts and crafts, pubs and restaurants. Come and explore, there is something here for everybody.

If you already know Beaminster you will understand what a fantastic place it is. If you don't or haven't been for a while then seize the opportunity to visit.

Clockhouse Jewellers - A Gem Of A Family Business

Jonathan working in the Clockhouse Jewellers' Workshop

FAMILY AFFAIR: Fred, Clara and Anne Burgess.

Clockhouse Jewellers has been established in Dorchester since 1963 and is the oldest family run jewellers in the town. It is run by Fred Burgess and his wife Anne, along with his son Jonathan and daughter Clara. The business has two main elements of specialist repair and quality jewellery sales.

Fred and Jonathan focus on in house repair and reconditioning of all antique clocks. Their expert knowledge and experience means that you can trust them to ensure that your favourite clock or treasured family heirloom will be as good as new. You can also bring your watches into the shop for repair, battery change or a new strap. Clockhouse Jewellers also offers a cleaning service for clocks and all kinds of jewellery.

The retail side of the business is looked after by Anne and Clara, and also benefits from the experience and knowledge for some enthusiastic experts. Between them they will help you find the perfect piece. Quality is top priority, and with new and antique jewellery on display you are bound to find exactly what you are looking for. If you are looking for a truly individual piece they can make it for you, including gem set and wedding rings. The shop boasts watches by Rolex, Omega and Vacheron many of which are reconditioned so are below the retail price; as well as rings for all occasions, necklaces, bracelets, clocks, barometers and much more.

In the zone for all printing and stationary needs

Cartridge Zone in Dorchester and Weymouth is a true one stop shop for all of your printing and stationary needs. Owner Ed War set the business up over four years ago. Success meant growth from a busy Weymouth outlet to the Dorchester store which celebrates its first birthday this spring.

You will find that they stock all major print cartridge brands including Canon, Brother, Xerox, Sharp, Samsung, Hewlett-Packard and Oki. Their prices are extremely competitive, and they are currently making them even more so with an astounding one-third off all Epson compatible cartridges until the end of April. Cartridge Zone also prints onto fabric items including T Shirts for teams, hen and stag parties, gifts, work wear, or whatever you require. Other services include personal stationary such as letterheads, envelopes, correspondence cards, post cards, and beautiful wedding stationary. They can print professional business cards and offer services for binding, printing, plan printing and copying, laminating, rubber stamps, photocopying, litho print and design, poster printing, video to DVD transfer and much, much more. They can even re-fill old cartridges. Does your PC need an MOT? At Cartridge Zone a PC health check cost just £8, which includes a full check to locate the source of any problems which they will then quote you to fix. Visit Cartridge Zone today for a fantastic local service at great prices.

The facts on energy performance certificates

EPC'S came about as a result of the European Directive in the battle against climate change. Unfortunately due to the lack of understanding governing the process and the implementation that was put in place an EPC is regarded by various members of the public as being an unnecessary evil and just another piece of red tape that we could do without. This could be no further from the truth and hopefully I will be able to clarify some relevant questions and shine a more positive light on the issue.

For instance a residential EPC is valid from the date of issue for a period of ten years and at this point in time costs less than a colour television license which lasts for a period of one year? That is a very basic however simple fact but there is a lot more to it than just the cost.

An EPC actually brings out recommendations to assist the property owner in ways to save on fuel bills and at the same time contribute in the battle against climate change. The recommendations are supported by new feed in tariffs which entitle the consumer to export generated renewable fuel back to the grid saving on costs and energy. With ever increasing fuel costs and the state of the current economy any means by which we can save money in the here and now has to be advantageous.

More immediate cost effective solutions like switching to low energy light bulbs, improving loft and wall insulation or upgrading a boiler system are all highlighted in the end result depending on the utility usage in individual properties.

There may be sceptics out there who condemn the entire climate change hype but even they are keen to save money.

Climate change is a fact and the EPC is a valuable tool in helping to reduce carbon emissions from buildings. Buildings are responsible for 50% of the release of CO2 emissions into the atmosphere. By applying the EPC process we are able to measure the performance of buildings and in doing so not only are we able to implement measures but we are also helping to change the way in which new buildings are designed and constructed to become environmentally friendly.

The EPC process is applicable to residential properties, commercial properties and public buildings owned by a local or government authority. In short just about any habitable building, with a number of exceptions, i.e. a place of worship, are suitable for an energy performance assessment by a qualified and accredited assessor. I would urge the public to ensure that the person performing the assessment is recognised by a governing body and that they perform a professional service. I would encourage the public to ask questions of the assessor regarding the resultant rating on a property and by what means they could improve to save money on fuel costs. The assessor is actually there to help.

The negative aspect of an EPC needs to be replaced by the positive and hopefully the public will realise the value of the process as we move ahead in the battle against climate change. After all saving money, energy, contributing to a cleaner environment and helping to create a better future for our children must surely be a good thing.

Tea and history anyone?

The Duke of Monmouth landed at Lyme Regis on the 11th June 1685 to challenge King James' claim to the throne, following the death of Charles II. He assembled an army in excess of 3,000 men and marched to Sedgemoor in Somerset.

He was defeated by the King's army in less than a month. Around 1300 were taken prisoner. Five Judges came to Dorchester with the infamous Judge Jeffreys, whose reputation was that of the 'hanging judge'.

In September 1685, 312 cases were heard in the Oakroom at the rear of the Antelope Hotel; of these 292 were sentenced to death. Only 74 were executed, with 175 transported, 9 were fined or whipped and 54 were discharged.

Judge Jeffreys - having his eye on promotion - was later made Lord Chancellor.

When King James fell and William of Orange landed in Torbay, Jeffreys was captured and imprisoned in the Tower of London. He died in 1689 while awaiting trial, probably of natural causes.

Rumours at the time said he has been poisoned while in the Tower and that his body had been returned to Dorchester and wallied up in the Courtroom - now the Oakroom. This 17th Century Oak panelled room has been carefully restored to maintain its character and original features.

Today it is called The Oakroom and is a delightful tea-room, with a peaceful, tranquil atmosphere, replicating the style and service of a Lyons Corner House.

The Oakroom of today serves a variety of light meals throughout the day and service is a high priority. The staff at the Oakroom pride themselves on their high levels of customer service, creating a warm, homely atmosphere where you can enjoy lovely lunches and of course, Dorset clotted cream teas.

Spooky company for high tea!

Built in 1635, this Grade II listed building is one of the oldest in the town and was the Abbot's residence. It has been a tea room since 1902 and has been superbly and sympathetically renovated by the current owners, Derek and Deborah Dalley, including the refurbishment of the old gas lamps which still work.

They also found a copy of the Abbot's Bible with a 15th century cover over a 12th century manuscript, lodged up the main chimney.

Derek is a chef and prepares most of the food which he tries to source from local farms and producers in the country. All of the cakes and scones are baked fresh every morning, and they serve good, hearty breakfasts from 7.30am to 10.00am.

As well as the traditional 'cream teas' there is always homemade soup of the day, a wide selection of sandwiches and hot baguettes and a daily 'specials' board.

The building is also a favourite for paranormal investigators and is said to be one of the most haunted places in England!

There's a lot happening at Dorset County Museum!

There are plenty of exciting events coming up at Dorset County Museum.

Jazz fans will welcome the return of popular local Jazz band, The Cornertones, for a free lunchtime concert on Friday 28 May between 1.00 and 2.00pm. The repertoire will include works by Duke Ellington and Fats Waller.

At half-term, Dorset County Museum will be running a family activity on Wednesday 2 June between 10.30am and 12.30pm. The theme is 'Heads and Faces' and children and their parents or carers can create dramatic collage pictures inspired by the current exhibition and by other collections in the Museum. The cost is just £3 per child.

For lovers of art and design, Alice Kettle, the artist responsible for the current exhibition, Allegory, will be giving a Masterclass at 7pm on Wednesday 2 June.

She will discuss the themes of the exhibition and take questions from the audience. Tickets cost £5 and are available now. Alice's exhibition of dramatic, contemporary embroidery runs until 26 June and entry is free.

Don't forget the next meeting of the Museum Club – exclusively for children between 7 and 14. On Saturday 19 June at 10.30am the group will be making a giant 'bead painting'. If you are not already a member, you can come along and join on the day – membership costs just £10 for a year and meetings are held once a month on Saturday mornings.

Finally, we look forward to the return of the music students from Thomas Hardy School for a concert at 1.00pm on Monday 28 June. Come along and support some potential musical stars of the future. Entry is free and all are welcome.

True hidden treasure from the bottom of the sea!

BILLY THE FISH originally opened its doors as a fish monger with a table in the shop front that could seat eight people. On occasion people would request that they eat their locally caught fish in the fishmongers so they'd get it at its absolute freshest.

Billy the proprietor saw this as a great opportunity to offer his customers a unique dining experience in Dorchester and soon obtained the next-door building that had previously been operating as a model car shop.

Billy's vision was to offer his customers the chance to pick fresh fish from the counter and watch from their tables as it was filleted and cooked before them whilst they chatted with the chefs so as to learn the art and also mention personal preferences, tastes or dietary requirements.

The restaurant that Billy created now seats 36 and more if the venue is booked for private buffet parties. The business also has been known to cater for wedding parties, birthdays (with karaoke) and also special cook nights where you can (in small groups at a time) actually go into the kitchen and take part in the process of filleting and cooking the fish.

There are lunch and evening menus containing all fresh locally caught fish, meat and vegetarian options, vegetables which come, in particular, from Billy's father's allotment which adds to the friendly local feel of the business.

Lunch is served daily from 11-4pm and evening dinner from Thursday to Saturday from 7pm-late but Billy would like to make it clear that if you wish to book a table for an evening that is not advertised as open, the team will gladly open the restaurant to meet your needs. The fish counter is open Monday - Friday between 9-5pm.

Billy the Fish is a quirky and unique dining experience that should be tried by all lovers of fresh fish. The style and layout of the restaurant and kitchen provides a great atmosphere in which to dine as customers and staff can communicate freely.

Shelley the chef would like to recommend trying live lobsters and crabs cooked to order, the stuffed lemon sole with chopped coriander, parsley, capers, lemon zest, and black pepper layered on one fillet and covered with the other or the mixed platter of fish or shellfish. Whatever your taste the diverse menu that can be flexibly personalised to your specific needs is well worth a look.

MOSTERTON

MOSTERTON Garden Club spring show was held in April, a month late because of the weather, and Mr. Cyril Whitlock from Groves Nursery was the judge.

Unfortunately there was a distinct lack of entries, but the quality of the flowers was excellent. After a very detailed examination of the exhibits Mrs. Eileen Rabbets was announced as the overall winner.

Mr. Whitlock then gave members various tips on how to show and exhibit flowers to their best advantage. When displaying daffodils the flowers must be perfect and the back must be as good as the front, also space the flowers out so they are displayed to their best advantage. With the Hellebores in a dish, if possible each flower must look the same and of course be perfect, once again do not crowd the dish.

Once the judging was completed members enjoyed a light-hearted evening with homemade refreshments and a quiz, which was won by the visiting team from Beaminster Gardening Club. The meeting in June will be a visit to the garden at Whetley Farm.

MELPLASH

N EMINENT botanist and conservationist is to give a talk at a garden party in Melplash.

Sir Ghilleen Prance has been invited to give a talk by the West Dorset Liberal Democrats at their cream tea constituency garden party.

Sir Ghilleen is a eminent botanist and conservationist and is former director of Kew Gardens and is advisor to the Eden Project in Cornwall.

Peter and Liz Jones will host the party at their Melplash Farmhouse on Sunday, May 30th between 3pm - 6pm.

Tickets cost £10 for Lib Dem members and £15 for non-members and will include speaker, auction and cream tea

For more information, please contact Janet Page, chairman of the West Dorset Liberal Democrats, on 01308 862422.

BURTON BRADSTOCK

MR CUSTARD will be the guest at Burton Bradstock village fayre on Bank Holiday Monday, May 31st, in the delightful Rectory gardens

It's an ideal afternoon out for all local and visiting families, with tests of skill for children and people of all ages, lots of purchasing opportunities, barbecue and renowned Dorset cream teas.

Featured again for children this year is face painting, pig racing, and a timed supervised obstacle course. In addition this year there will be a fencing demonstration by an ex Olympic fencer and her team.

You never know what bargains you will find for sale, and there is bound to be the usual queue of 'early birds' to search for that special book, CD, soft toy, spring plant or delicious Dorset cake or jam. An event not to be missed.

Conchords takes flight

IF YOU'VE never seen comedy show Flight Of The Conchords (one of the highlights of the BBC Four schedule), you're definitely missing out. The HBO import ended last year after just two seasons, but the stars of the show are still going strong.

The series follows New Zealand's "fourth most popular guitar-based digi-bongo-acapella-rap-funk-comedy-folk duo" on their journey trying to make it big in New York City.

The pair comprises of two socially inept Kiwis, Jemaine and Bret, who struggle to find success with their music - and women - whilst in NYC.

The wonderful area of characters also includes their hilariously incompetent manager Murray, their lone, crazed fan (well, more like stalker) Mel, and their deluded friend Dave, who covers up the fact he still lives with his parents by passing them off as roommates.

Of course, Jemaine and Bret are only playing fictionalised versions of themselves in the TV show, but this was the only version the crowd were interested in when the duo took to the stage at the Manchester Apollo on Saturday (May 9th).

The two are in the UK playing songs from the TV series. These tunes are often built into the narrative structure of the show, sometimes being a part of an episode's plot.

This might sound all a little, well, rubbish to the unconverted. But you need look no further for proof of how good this act is - and how funny their songs are - than noting how many venues they've sold out on this tour.

The evening began with a stand-up routine by Eugene Mirman, who plays their Russian landlord in the show. But all the fans really wanted were the Conchords, and just before 9pm Bret and Jemaine came on stage (sporting cardboard box robot heads, naturally) to launch into comedy classic 'Too Many Dicks On The Dancefloor'.

The Mancunian audience were up for a bit of banter. At one point some guy shouted out: "Get on with it, fishlips" to Jemaine. He came back with a great response, asking the heckler how he knew his lips were salty.

The pair admitted Googling the city, with Jemaine asking the audience if they were "mad for it" as if he were Liam Gallagher. Bret showed just how much research they'd done by enquiring: "So, anyone been stabbed today? Anyone on the way to the show?"

The two guitarists were joined by Nigel, supposedly one of only three members of the New Zealand Symphony Orchestra (the other two couldn't make it) to play additional instruments (i.e. cello and drums).

The band played their set with much of the same quirky, bumbling charm and humour they project on the show, but it wasn't until the finale that the audience were rolling in the aisles. Just before last track 'Bowie', the two literally ripped off their shirts and jeans (yes, they had velcro down the sides all along) to reveal glam rock era, sparkly jumpsuits!

By the time the encore concluded with 'Sugalumps' - with Bret down in the audience bumping and grinding in the face of some unfortunate woman in the front row - I don't think anyone could laugh anymore if they'd tried.

The Conchords as an act - like their comedy and their music - is either something you "get" or you "don't get". Now their series has come to an end, I'm not sure where the band goes next. The success of their live show is clearly off the back of the TV series - they are playing songs from their HBO show after all.

Maybe a film, or a touring stage production that includes more characters from the series? I just hope we haven't seen the last of this pair. They are New Zealand's fourth most popular comedy folk duo after all!

More starry-eyed surprises announced for Camp Bestival

With just over ten weeks to go until Lulworth Castle on Dorset's Jurassic Coast provides the fairytale setting for the third Camp Bestival, featuring Friendly Fires, Madness, Calvin Harris, George Clinton & Parliament Funkadelic, Billy Bragg, The Fall and Lee Scratch Perry, the Besti crew are still working overtime adding bountiful bohemian pleasures to their family festival paradise. And have they got some super exciting news that is guaranteed to get your tots in a tizz ... plus there's myriad musical treats to help the weekend go with a bang!

Camp Bestival organiser Rob da Bank says: "Anyone with a child younger than 4 or 5 will know the story of The Gruffalo ... in fact most of my mates without kids know it better than Dickens or Shakespeare which is kind of worrying yet also proof that we needed this show hot off Broadway to come to the Camp! With two shows over the weekend so no-one need miss it, this will be a highlight I'm sure. Add in the hottest tipped artist of 2010 Ellie Goulding, my old mates Zero 7 DJing, Tinie Tempah rippin' it up and ukuleles, folksy beards and rave synthesisers it's all shaping up rather nicely."

Camp Bestival organisers are over the moon to be able to announce that The Gruffalo, recently voted most beloved bedtime story by BBC Radio 2 listeners, is coming to Camp Bestival! Adapted from Julia Donaldson and Alex Scheffler's best selling book and performed by Tall Stories whose unique brand of physical story theatre has taken them around the world, the show will bring to life the amazing story of the clever Mouse's journey through the forest as he befores the creatures who'd like to eat him with tales of his friend The Gruffalo's terrible tusks and terrible claws until he encounters The Gruffalo's terrible teeth in his terrible jaws for himself. With two shows over the weekend, one on the main stage and another in the Little Big Top, you definitely don't want to miss this irresistibly magical musical take on a classic that has sold out on tours across the UK and even on Broadway and is the perfect family entertainment.

There will also be plenty of jaw-droppingly good live acts who will be joining the party including BBC Sound of 2010 and BRIT's Critics' Choice Award winner Ellie Goulding, Plumpstead's finest chart topper Tinie Tempah, perfect precision pop from David E. Sugar, chill wavers Summer Camp, surfer-blues three-piece The Martin Harley Band, chip-tune warrior Unicorn Kid, teenage tearaway Charli XCX, award winning multi-instrumentalist Jim Moray, post-folksters Spindle & Wit, alternative soul from Woon, the inimitable Dulwich Ukulele Club, meditative rifting from Flux Ache, boy-girl dream pop duo Visions of Trees, the Isle of Wight's Cooly Haste and nu school disco crew Soft Rocks. Putting the needle to the records will be a cavalcade of selectors including Zero 7 who will be playing a soul and boogie set, the boundary busting Balearic Brothers, Dub Pistols king-pin Barry Ashworth, Sunday Best's very own Fear of Theydond and proto-house spinner Tosh Ohta.

In their continued effort to bring power to the people Camp Bestival can also announce your chance to enter Folk Idol, so hey nonny nonny come get your folk on! The are but three rules:

- 1) wear a false beard and/or folk costume
- 2) sing a classic folk song
- 3) get judged by a panel of folk experts.

If you fancy a bit of that you can enter here: www.myspace.com/folkidol

Simply add them as a friend and drop them a message. And remember Folk Idol: Britain's got beards!

Finally for now, CB have more edifying entertainment from Tangled Feet who present 'I Confess' a one-to-one storytelling piece set inside a confessional booth in The Dingly Dell. Gaining audience and critical acclaim in its Edinburgh and London runs, I Confess promises a revelatory and life affirming experience. One not to miss!

Bestival (Isle of Wight) has already sold out and tickets are flying for Camp Bestival so make sure you get it together and come and join the fun at a fairytale castle by the sea for a weekend of magical mayhem and family fun!

Poetry for Pleasure

by Frank McGarry

*Look from your door and tell me now
The colour of the sea.
Where can I buy that wondrous dye
And take it home with me?*

Bliss Carman

Wherever you live in Dorset you are not too far from the sea. And beautiful though our county is, many, if not most, of our visitors come to see the sea. Not necessarily to go on it but at least to go to the shore. Yes, the English do like to be beside the seaside. Muriel Stuart, whose poetry was once described, by Thomas Hardy no less, as being 'superlatively good', wrote this.

The Wood and the Shore

*The low bay melts into a ring of silver
And slips it on the shore's reluctant finger,
Though in an hour the tide will turn, will tremble,
Forsaking her because the moon persuades him.
But the black wood that leans and sighs above her
No hour can change, no moon can slave or summon,
Though leaning to the tide she hears nor heeds him.
Then comes the dark. From sleepy, shell-strewn beaches,
From long, pale leagues of sand and cold, clear water,*

*She hears the tide go out toward the moonlight.
The wood still leans...weeping she turns to seek him,
And his black hair all night is on her bosom.*

William Wordsworth is primarily associated with the Lake District but - as Dorset folk know - he also spent six years living in here in the county with his sister Dorothy. It would be nice to think that this verse of his was about the sea off the Dorset coast. But if 'the goodly vessel' he describes here had sailed north in Lyme Bay it would surely have come to grief.

With ships the sea was sprinkled

*With ships the sea was sprinkled far and nigh,
Like stars in Heaven, and joyously it showed;
Some lying fast at anchor in the road,
Some veering up and down, one knew not why.
A goodly vessel then I did espy
Come like a giant from a haven broad;
And lustily along the bay she strode,
Her tackling rich, and of apparel high.
The ship was nought to me, nor I to her,
Yet I pursued her with a lover's look;
This ship to all the rest I did prefer:
When will she turn, and whither? She will brook
No tarrying; where she comes the winds must stir:*

On went she, and due north her journey took.

When you live within sight of the sea it is a real pleasure to experience the ever-changing panorama. A red sky at night is a sailor's delight, but it is also a joy for the landlubber looking out to sea at twilight time.

When the Sea is Pink

*In the evening light, when the sea is pink
Reflecting the hue of the sky
A skilful swallow swoops in flight
And a blackbird is singing close by.*

*No petrol engine disturbs the peace,
The seagulls have ceased their cries.
I stand silent - as in a cathedral -
And give thanks as another day dies.*

Demon Power

STARS of Channel 4's 'Dirty Tricks', 'The Magic of Jesus' and 'Tricks from the Bible', Barry and Stuart bring their devious all-new jaw-dropping show to the Electric Palace on Saturday, June 19th after sell-out shows at the Edinburgh Festival in 2008 and 2009.

Barry and Stuart present an astonishing array of bizarre tricks in Powered by Demons. They will teach you where you should never stick a polo mint, filter a drink through both of their faces for a thirsty audience member, teach the ultimate party trick (if you're courageous enough to try it) and demonstrate how to impress a date with the use of a razor sharp needle.

Barry says "We always get asked the question 'is it possible to use magic to impress members of the opposite sex?'. So in the show we demonstrate how it can be done. Unfortunately we don't guarantee success as our methods are a bit pathological."

One trick in particular Barry and Stuart have been eager to perform for years is the 'Needle in the Eye'. "We've never been brave enough until now. It really is quite dangerous, so it's cool we've decided to risk blindness and include it. We've also genuinely suffered a few infections whilst putting the show together this year. We must be the only magicians that have to medically sterilise their props."

In the ultimate late-night magic show Barry and Stuart plan to induce shock and awe across Bridport; you may even be tickled by a ghost.

Barry and Stuart's 'Powered by Demons' is at the Electric Palace on Saturday, June 19th. Call Bridport TIC on 01308 424901 for tickets.

DARK ARTISTS | Barry and Stuart's incredible show will shock and amaze

They think it's all over (the big screen) ... It is now!

THE Electric Palace in Bridport will be screening all the England football matches for the World Cup on the cinema screen!

Starting on Saturday, June 12th June with England vs USA and then a week later on Saturday, June 18th June with England vs Algeria, the Electric Palace can seat 400 fans and has two bars available for drinks... but here's the best news... tickets for the England games will be just £1 each!

The Electric Palace will be screening the World Cup Final on Sunday 11th July and tickets will be just £5 each. Watching the World Cup on Dorset's largest cinema screen will be something very special indeed.

Booking is highly recommended as all World Cup events are sure to sell out very quickly. All tickets are available from Bridport Tourist Information Centre on 01308 424901. Under 16s must be accompanied by a responsible adult.

Fine dining and superb entertainment with Le Pip

ROSIE Peters and Helen Hempstead started their catering company 'Le Pip' earlier this year to provide quality food for special events such as weddings and parties. After such success in their first few months, they have decided to treat the people of Bridport to a 'Pop-Up Le Pip' experience at the Electric Palace on Friday, May 21st.

'Le Pip' combines excellent food with quality entertainment to create a unique dining experience unlike any other around.

Enjoy an evening of sumptuous five course dining, accompanied by light dinner jazz of Bossa Novas and also classical pieces by Rob Anthony and Rick Welch.

Anthony and Welch have played at an array of highly respected concerts halls to include The Royal Albert Hall, QE Hall, Purcell Room, Wigmore Hall, Royal Festival Hall, New York Central Park Summer Stage and Sydney Opera House.

Tickets to include a five course meal are £30 and are limited. To book please call the Electric Palace on 01308 428354 or email rosie@lepip.co.uk

Norton eyes dream guest

GRAHAM Norton has interviewed pretty much everyone over the years. But one megastar keeps eluding him – global singing sensation Madonna. Graham describes Madge as the "Holy Grail" of chatshow guests and says he'd be happy to dedicate an entire episode to the iconic star.

He told What's On TV: "If we're on the air long enough, hopefully there will come a day when she'll come on. Essentially it's because I'd like to meet her, it's as simple as that. I've never met her and I'd like to."

"In her case I think you'd do a special. I think you'd have to do a special just with her, maybe with other people along the way but it would be the Madonna show. If Glee can give up their show for her then I'm sure I can."

GAVIN And Stacey actress Ruth Jones will play Hattie Jacques in a BBC biopic. The film about the legendary Carry On comedienne will look at her career as well as her affair with a much younger man. Ruth revealed: "Hattie Jacques is a comedy heroine of mine and I'm thrilled to have been asked to play her. She was an incredibly talented and fascinating woman both on and off screen and so much more than just the 'funny fat lady'. I can't wait."

CONTROVERSIAL 80s pop star Boy George has slammed the BBC's recent biopic, Worried About The Boy.

He posted on Twitter during the show's broadcast claiming that it was "badly written".

George added the drama, which told the story of his early career and the formation of Culture Club, was "beautifully shot & styled but badly written, it lacks heart and soul! The make-up is the best thing about it."

The singer, real name George O'Dowd insisted that he was "glad" the programme had been made, but added that it had been penned with "poetic licence".

The comments come despite George's involvement in the creation of the one-off special, which starred Douglas Booth in the lead role.

Douglas revealed in an interview that Boy George had visited the set during filming, going so far as to create some of the costumes himself.

The show has been generally well received by critics, with the Daily Telegraph calling it a "stunning, sensitive and surprisingly moving production".

REVIEW | LYME BAY CHORALE WITH
MUSICAL DIRECTOR ALEX DAVIES
AND ORGANIST GREG MORRIS

LYME Bay Chorale, under Alex Davies' masterly direction, and magnificently supported by organist Greg Morris, provided a rich, varied evening of musical entertainment with a well-thought-out programme.

The concert began with a warm and powerful opening of Haydn's Insane et vanae curae, which demonstrated the choir's clear, focused vocal blend. There was mellifluous interweaving of the soprano and alto parts in the second section, and a lovely dramatic contrast was achieved.

This was followed by Kodaly's Laudes Organi, a particularly challenging piece which the choir delivered with a good strong start, although a few hesitant moments followed, suggesting that on this occasion they did not feel so musically secure. My compliments to the soprano section for maintaining a confident, clear line throughout, rising with ease to a bell-like top C in the final bars.

Greg Morris's organ solo, Prelude and Fugue in C by Bach was an absolute revelation, played on the new Skrabl organ.

The choir returned with music of exceptional beauty, Brahms' How Lovely Are Thy Dwellings, which they once again sung with musical phrasing and a sweet, clear vocal blend, though slightly lacking in the dramatic intensity that the original German lends the piece – maybe a new challenge for the future!

Lyme Bay Chorale are not only sweet-voiced, they also proved to be a friendly, warm bunch of people, providing canapés and wine during the interval – what a treat!

Part two brought the world premiere performance of Great is the Lord, Psalm 48 written for the choir by one of its members, Peter Milmer. This was a bold and exciting piece of music, sung with great confidence and obvious enjoyment by all choir members. Soloists Peter and Susie Milmer sang with gentle clarity.

Lotti's Crucifixus, a piece I am not familiar with, was sung convincingly and beautifully. It was very moving and I would like to hear it again.

My congratulations go to the choir for attempting to sing in the original Russian one of my favourite pieces of vocal music, Bogoroditsye Dyevo (Ave Maria) by Rachmaninov. It is difficult for English singers to achieve the rich colour of the Russian sound; a little more understanding of the use of consonants in the language would help to produce the warm timbre required. Nevertheless, it was sung with tuneful serenity.

Greg Morris was back with another virtuoso solo, Lied & Carillon from 24 Pieces en style libre by Louis Vierne, which was greeted enthusiastically by the audience.

The final piece, Haydn's Te Deum was an uplifting end to the evening.

My thanks to Alex Davies, Greg Morris and all the singers of the Lyme Bay Chorale for providing such an enjoyable evening.

Out of Chaos

Six strangers on a stage creating and recreating stories; Temple Theatre Company brings its latest production Out of Chaos to the Marine Theatre in Lyme Regis on Sunday, May 23rd.

Out of darkness came life. Out of life came chaos. Out of chaos came rage.

Six people from around the world come together with lots to get off their chests - from the creation of the world to last week's terrible tube journey. Randy Greek Gods, feuding families and strangers on public transport come head-to-head in a fast, funny and delightfully furious hour. An anarchic blend of clowning, cross-dressing, physical theatre and music, Out of Chaos has attracted a host of awards including Best Production at the International Act Festival in Bilbao, Audience Prize at the International Theatre Festival in Berlin and Pick of the Fringe at the Edinburgh Fringe.

Mike Tweddle, Director of the production, said: "Out of Chaos is a dynamic, physical piece of theatre and storytelling inspired by the timeless world of Greek mythology. It unites the fantastical, the legendary, the mortal and the mundane. It connects modern and ancient worlds in a playful union of tragedy and comedy."

Marine Theatre Creative Director Ian Stephens said: "Out of Chaos is the third in our series of productions I saw at last year's Edinburgh Festival and booked on the spot. I was hugely impressed by the energy, wit and invention the six performers conjured up on stage. The audience didn't stop laughing throughout. A host of seemingly random stories are weaved together in a remarkable piece of theatre which I thought would make a great addition to our programme."

Out of Chaos is at 8pm on Sunday, May 23rd at the Marine Theatre. Tickets cost £11 (£9 concessions), available from Lyme Regis Tourist Information Centre on 01297 442138, online at www.marinetheatre.org.uk or on the door.

First British film to be shot in 3D released

THE first British film to be shot in 3D, "StreetDance" (PG), is set for release this week.

"Britain's Got Talent" 2008 winner George Sampson will make his debut appearance to the big screen, as well as dance troupes Diversity and Flawless, who rose to fame during the 2009 series of the talent show.

The film tells the story of a London dance crew training for the UK Street Dancing Championships, who are forced to work with ballet dancers from the Royal Dance School in return for rehearsal space. Although they seem to share no common ground, the two groups realise they need to join forces to win the competition.

"StreetDance" features urban music from N-Dubz, Tinie Tempah, Lightbulb Thieves, Chipmunk and Cheryl Cole.

Released Friday, May 21st

AMERICAN police comedy "Cop Out" (15) stars Bruce Willis and Tracy Morgan as NYPD officers Jimmy and Paul.

The pair are celebrating their ninth year as partners when they are suspended without pay for botching a drugs raid. In desperate need of money so he can pay for his daughter's expensive wedding, Jimmy decides to sell a precious baseball card, only to find it has been stolen and sold for drugs.

The partners set out on a special mission to retrieve the card, but not everything goes as smoothly as planned...

Released Friday, May 21st

BOYS IN BLUE | Tracy Morgan and Bruce Willis star in Cop Out

FROM the producers of "Pirates of the Caribbean" comes a new action-adventure fantasy film, "Prince of Persia: Sands of Time" (12A).

The film is loosely based on the 2003 video game of the same name, with elements of games "Warrior Within" and "The Two Thrones" also incorporated.

Jake Gyllenhaal, known for his performances in "Brokeback Mountain" and "The Day After Tomorrow" stars as heroic Prince Dastan, who is adopted by the king after showing valor in battle so that the king's two sons will not fight over the throne.

The film also stars Gemma Arterton as Princess Tamina, Ben Kingsley as Nizam, and Alfred Molina as Sheik Amar.

Released Friday, May 21st

My Les Paul group comes to Bridport for special UK meet

THE 'My Les Paul' is an on line forum for owners and players of the famous Les Paul guitar and currently has 20,000 members worldwide.

Meetings for members to jam and discuss related topics are often held in the United States, but this year some members have organized a UK meeting at the Crown Inn, Bridport, Dorset, on Friday May 21st.

The event is being organized by local guitarist Phil Rosenberg, and both he and fellow member, John Vasco, will be hosting the evening's jam session.

Two highly respected local musicians, Dan Wheeler (drums) and Chris Loneragan (Bass) will be supplying the rhythm section for the evening, as various members perform a wide variety of songs and guitar styles.

The jam session will also feature some younger members of our local community who will get up on stage and perform, either on their own, or by joining in with the more experienced musicians to take a guitar solo.

There will also be some guest appearances during the evening from local musicians such as Mutter Slater and Lauren Rosenberg.

The jam session will kick off at around 8.30pm and a great time should be had by all.

Expert Grooming Service!

Bev Taylor was born in Cornwall, spending the early part of her life on a farm, which is where her love of animals began – her first pet was Bluebell the cow!

Bev moved to Bournemouth in her adult life and met her partner about twenty-four years ago. This is where she completed courses in Dog Grooming, Dog Physiology and Animal First Aid at Bournemouth College.

After her partner retired from the fire service they moved back West and settled in Chideock, about five years ago. Bev carried on grooming and established her business Taylors Dog Grooming in this area (although she still goes back to Bournemouth to visit some old customers). She offers friendly and specialist care for all breeds. A range of services are offered to suit your doggy needs; clipping & styling, brush, bath & dry, ear & eye cleaning, nail clipping, gland unblocking.

The mobile work has taken Bev to lots of different surroundings: sheds, horseboxes, even a funeral parlour. Bev now has rooms at both Gilling & Bowditch veterinary surgery in Beaminster and Haydon Veterinary Group in Bridport, she offers flexible working times and of course she can come to you. To make an appointment please call Bev on 07866 647834.

Bev does various voluntary works at Dog Rescue and the Margaret Green Foundation in Winterbourne Kingston and can be met at the Brit Valley Dog Show on May 30th. Bev has just returned from Thailand where she spent a lot of time feeding the sick and stray dogs and cats. Bev has two dogs; Six year old, Frankie the Rottweiler who Bev helped to deliver as part of a litter of ten! And nineteen month old, Bella the Hungarian Vizsla, this is the same breed as the latest winner of Crufts! Please visit www.taylorsdoggrooming.co.uk or call Bev Taylor on 01297 489302 or 07866 647834

FEEL THE BUZZ OF THE BRIDPORT BEE FEST!

THE Bridport Bee-Fest is back with a fantastic line-up for 2010! Bringing you some amazing live music to get you in the mood for the summer festival season, this year's event should be a day to remember.

The Bee-Fest is a day of live music and entertainment to be held on Saturday, July 24th from 1 pm to 11pm at Bridport Football ground (home of the town's football team the Bridport Bees, hence the name).

The afternoon's entertainment will kick off with local duo Shelby's Elbows, who will be opening the show with their impressive repertoire of popular covers; Skank Tank, an accomplished ska band from the west country, complete with brass section and hot reggae rhythms, are guaranteed to get everybody dancing; Patchwork Mammoth, a young up-and-coming band from Dorset, will be playing their own original songs from their recently recorded EP; and, maintaining the momentum for the evening session, the acclaimed Hightown Crows playing an eminently danceable set of rockabilly blues; and last, but not least, Pronghorn, a firm festival favourite, will be bringing you their unique blend of folk, punk and bluegrass that they like to call "cowpunk".

And if all that's not enough, there will be children's entertainers - Jamie the Jester, who was a great hit last year, will be back with his fire-juggling antics - as well as a bouncy castle, and fun activities on the football field. Plenty to keep your little ones amused while you enjoy the music, the sunshine, and a drink at the beer tent. Hot food and a barbecue will also be on offer.

Entry price is only £6 for the whole day, or any part of the day, and accompanied children under 12 go free. For more information see www.beefest.co.uk, or email: info@beefest.co.uk

Thorncombe Festival of Cricket and Beer

ON Saturday, May 29th Thorncombe Sports and Social Club will be holding the annual Beer and Cricket Festival. There will be 12 guest ales on offer, the 6-a-side cricket competition and lots more. The action begins from 12pm, live music at 7pm and there will be hot food available throughout the day. Entry and parking is free and camping is available on site.

Thorncombe Sports and Social Club is situated 5-miles south of Chard. Follow signs for Forde Abbey and then Thorncombe.

The day makes for a relaxed and pleasant summers afternoon in the heart of West Dorset, so come along and join in.

Detached Victorian house with countryside views to the sea

THIS imposing detached period house is understood to have been built in 1847 as a new farmhouse for the owner of Dowlands Farm.

The external walls are substantially constructed of natural stone with dressed stone quoins and leaded mullioned windows beneath a slated roof. Recent improvements over the last 5 years have included refitting the farmhouse style kitchen and installing a new bathroom and two shower rooms. The main roof has been stripped, re-battened and felted and natural slates refitted and the rear elevation stonework re-pointed in lime mortar.

The property offers flexible 7 bedroomed accommodation which can either be occupied as a generously proportioned family home or, as at present, providing a 3-bedroomed holiday let plus separate owners accommodation. In the grounds is an excellent timber cabin which is ideal as a home office or studio.

The house enjoys a quiet setting with a sunny southerly rear aspect in the tiny rural hamlet of Dowlands, well away from busy main roads just to the west of the sought after Rousdon Estate amidst open countryside. The sea, although not directly accessible from Dowlands, is only about ½ mile to the south and is part of the Devon and Dorset 'Jurassic Coast' awarded World Heritage Site Status by UNESCO in 2001. There are sea views from the upper floors of the house and a spectacular view from a raised decking area adjacent to the rear boundary.

Accommodation includes: Reception Hall. Cloaks/W.c. Living Room. Farmhouse Kitchen with Aga. Second Kitchen/Utility. Sitting Room; First floor - 2 Bedrooms. Shower Room/W.c. Bathroom/W.c; Attic - 2 Bedrooms. Shower Room/W.c.

The property benefits from oil fired central heating. Outside there are steps down to Cellar/Workshop. Sunny south facing gardens (part walled) backing onto farmland with delightful views to the sea. Timber cabin/Home Office with w.c. In all about 2/3 acre.

The property has a price guide of £950,000 freehold. For more information contact Martine Diplock's office in Lyme Regis on 01297 445500.

Period cottage in village setting

DOON Beg is a period terraced cottage built principally of stone. The cottage has been recently modernised by the present owner, exposing many attractive period features including extending into the previously unused lower ground floor to create a large kitchen/dining room.

It is conveniently situated in Up-lyme within walking distance of the village amenities as it is located in the heart of the village.

The cottage is equally well suited as a permanent residence or for use as a holiday home.

Cottage style kitchen / dining room - Living room with wood burning stove - bedroom three / study - two bedrooms on the first floor - bathroom - courtyard garden.

Doon Beg has an asking price of £235,000. For more information contact Fortnam Smith & Banwell, Lyme Regis office on 01297 445666.

Refreshed and ready – the upgraded Mazda6

MAZDA has given its award-winning Mazda6 a meticulous and extensive refresh, enhancing its dynamic visual presence, boosting driver convenience and comfort features, as well as improving economy and lowering emissions.

On sale now and priced from £16,995 to £23,445 on the road, the Upgraded Mazda6 is perfectly poised to retain its position as the most athletic, engaging and stylish hatchback and estate in the fiercely competitive family car sector.

The upgraded Mazda6 is immediately distinguishable by its restyled front and rear - it now features Mazda's distinctive new family face complete with restyled silver-backed headlamps and fog lamp bezels for a dynamic and incisive visage. Similarly, the rear of both hatch and estate features striking new tail lights.

These exterior changes are complemented by stylistic enhancements and equipment upgrades to the cabin. Inside, Mazda's designers have introduced new silver ringed dials and controls in the driver's instrument binnacle, while the centre console and steering wheel spokes are finished in high-gloss piano-black trim. The sweeping dashboard also receives a softer and more tactile casing for a heightened sense of quality.

The Mazda6's four familiar equipment levels - S, TS, TS2 and Sport - all deliver class-leading levels of standard safety and convenience equipment. Upgraded equipment for the new upgraded Mazda6 encompasses 'smart' turn indicators and Emergency Stop Signal (ESS) for all models, while models further up the range benefit from a new aerodynamic rear spoiler, front and rear parking sensors, Hill Hold Assist and active Bi-Xenon AFS front lights.

The new Mazda6 range comes with choice of six engines - three petrol and three turbo diesel powerplants, available with five and six-speed manual transmissions or five-speed automatic gearboxes. The petrol engine line-up comprises the 120ps MZR 1.8-litre, the new MZR DISI 155ps 2.0-litre and the punchy 170ps MZR 2.5-litre performance flagship, while the diesel range comprises three variants of Mazda's acclaimed MZR-CD 2.2-litre turbo-charged unit that deliver 129ps, 163ps and 180ps.

All powerplants have been tuned to deliver better economy and lower emissions, delivering exceptionally competitive CO2 emission levels from just 138g/km and combined economy of up to 54.3mpg. Across the range, the diesel engines are now 4.1 percent more economical and benefit from a 4.8 percent drop in average CO2 emission levels. The petrol powerplants enjoy similar gains, with a 3.2 percent average increase in fuel economy and a 4.4 percent drop in average CO2 emissions.

The Mazda6's award-winning dynamism and athleticism has been further enhanced by an extensive raft of upgrades to the car's steering and suspension. The electrically assisted steering has been retuned for greater accuracy and feedback, while the double wishbone front and multi-link rear suspension layouts now feature uprated dampers and have been fine-tuned to deliver improved handling stability and ride comfort.

Its bold new styling, extensive range of clean and fuel-efficient petrol and turbo-diesel engines, higher levels of standard safety and luxury features and enhanced driving dynamics, the refreshed Mazda6 is ideally positioned to deliver exceptional value for money for private and corporate buyers alike.

LYME CLINCH FIFTH TITLE
Challenge cup completes triple

May 10th
DAISY HUTCHINGS CUP SEMI-FINAL
WEST & Middle Chinnock cruised past neighbours, and Division Two promotion chasers, Norton Athletic to reach their first ever Daisy Hutchings Cup Final. Mark Cawley (2), Damon Hallett (2) and Dan Rudge scored for the Chinnocks who have now scored 17 goals in the three rounds so far.

DIVISION ONE
A LAST Gasp Jamie Best goal salvaged a point for Perry Street Reserves from their draw with Ilminster Colts. Luke Lazenby scored for the visitors.

Tuesday, May 11th
DAISY HUTCHINGS CUP QUARTER-FINAL
LYME Regis kept alive hopes of a cup double with a 3-1 win at depleted Thorncombe. Jason Hawker (2) and Fred Thomson scored the goals that earn a semi-final with Farway United.

PREMIER
SOUTH Petherton cruised to a 6-0 win at Combe Reserves. Jon Hayter (2), Paul Holt (2), Liam Murray, Jason Behan scored the goals which saw the Saints slip to their biggest home defeat in more than five years.

DIVISION ONE
ONE point in 24 has left Pymore on the slippery slope to Division Two. Netherbury completed a League double in beating the Greens 2-1 in the derby match on Monday. Adam Sorrell put the visitors ahead before Rob Walter leveled.

But a foul by keeper Charlie Youngs on James Sayers gave Danny Rawlings the chance to slot home the winner from the penalty spot.

DIVISION THREE
MISTERTON Reserves failed to give player-manager Shane Westlake a win in his last game at the helm. The 35-year-old, who has decided to concentrate on solely playing for while, saw his troops continue their miserable form on the road as they went down to a 2-0 defeat at Crewkerne Town Reserves and end the season without an away win in 2010. Darren Coles and Nick Bazeley netted for the Tigers.

DIVISION FOUR
A SHOCK 2-1 reverse at lowly Hawkchurch Reserves has dealt a potential body-blow to Farway United Reserves' aspirations. Meanwhile a 6-2 win over visiting Hinton Reserves has left Chard United Reserves with one hand on the Division Four championship trophy. Stefan Coombes tormented the Saints defence with a foul goal haul whilst Ricky Anderson and Rob Milson chipped in with singles.

Whether Chard will line-up in Division Three next season depends on the number of teams ready to take their place in the PSL for the 2010-2011 term. In theory, the Jocelyn Road side would be held back in Division Four due to the fact that their first team has been relegated from Division Two.

Another factor could be the rumour that the Chard United first team squad from this season could be about to fold with a new 'veterans' team stepping into the bottom Division – all will become clear come the League annual meeting on June 3rd.

Thursday, May 12th
PREMIER
SOUTH Petherton equal their 83-goal haul of 2005-06 when they smashed home another half-dozen as Merriott Rovers were put the sword on Wednesday evening.

Rich Hebditch moved to 30 for the season with a single whilst Lee Holt, standing-in between the sticks, converted a late penalty for his first of the season. Paul Holt (2), Jody Bovey and Jon Hayter also netted.

Meanwhile goals from Andy Southern (2), Russell Legg (2) and Tom Houchen kept alive Beaminster's hopes of securing a second-place finish following a 5-2 win at Perry Street that completed an excellent season.

DIVISION ONE
LYME Regis Reserves edged closer to Division One safety with a comfortable 3-0 win at doomed Pymore. Aaron Cleal (2) and Tim Edwards scored for the Seaside's whose manager Gerard Hitchcock felt his team should have reached double figures.

Farway's strong finish to the season continued as they won the promotion battle with Forton Rangers 3-1 at East-lee Park.

Saturday, May 15th
PREMIER
THEY have been odd-on for a while, but Lyme Regis finally clinched their fifth Premier Division title with a 2-1 win at Barrington.

With the Shelway Lane Ground in immaculate condition the hosts put in a good performance and held the Champions elect at arms length for the best part of an hour.

Just before the interval a melee saw referee Martin Ives brandish his yellow card three times.

The Seaside's, looking tense, with the finishing line in sight, went close in the 52nd minute when Adam Caddy drilled a 25-yarder which beat stand-in keeper Mike Harrison all ends up but came back off the inside of the post.

But the Lyme nerves were eased minutes later when Caddy slotted home the opener. The win and the championship were sealed in the 68th minute when Julien Simier bagged his 18th goal of the season.

Lee Cleal struck the post from close range five minutes from time but the Lyme defence were denied a 19th clean sheet by a crisp finish by Guy Dare in the seventh minute of injury time.

It mattered not as the Seaside's saw out the remaining seconds to extend their unbeaten run to 26 matches and the champagne soon began to flow.

DIVISION ONE
WEST & Middle Chinnock, for so long the favourites for the Division One title, effectively saw their hopes of Premier Division football ended at the Davey Fort as they were crushed 6-1 by Lyme Regis Reserves.

It was 1-0 at the interval with Darren Poole giving the hosts' a slender lead. Poole added a second after the restart before Ashley Locke pulled one back. But the floodgates were about to open. Danny Thirlwell clipped home a free-kick, top-scorer Fred Thomson took his tally to eight, Luke Street added a fifth before Man-of-the-Match Poole completed a fine hat-trick as the Seaside's ensured their Division One survival.

Netherbury ended a four game losing run at home with a 3-2 win over relegation candidates Chard Rangers. A Ben Chubb penalty put Rangers ahead but strikes from Adam Sorrell (2) and Steve Symonds completed a league double and elevated the Ambers up to fourth spot.

John Mason, up from the Reserves, netted the other Rangers consolation.

DIVISION TWO
A SUPER show from youngster Dan Pyett saw Beaminster Reserves move up to fourth. Pyett struck four times as the Rainbows overturned a 1-0 half-time deficit courtesy of Pethy's Joe Humphries to storm home and record a fine 6-1 win – their biggest of the season. Ritchie Middleton and Dan Taylor also joined in the second-half goal-parade.

Forton Rangers Reserves had a team reshuffle for their midtable match with Hinton and it clearly worked. Andy Dowling, a regular between the sticks, scored twice, as did Ian Parsons – normally a defender – in a 5-1 victory. Jon Smith added Rangers' other goal.

A 2-2 draw at Shepton Beauchamp means Champions Millwey Rise are now just one game from an unbeaten league campaign. Strikes from Peter Hoare and a goal-of-the-season contender from player-manager Shane Featherstone saw Rise lead 2-1 at the break. But Sam Murley notched his 30th of the season to add to Scott Barry's earlier effort and the points were shared.

The result leaves Shepton with just a winner take all promotion clash at Norton Athletic on Tuesday evening.

DIVISION THREE
AN 8-3 win at Crewkerne Town Reserves sees Luso-Chard occupy one of the Division Three promotion slots – but for how long?

Andre Prudensio (4), Marco Quesdas (3) and Cleo Franca scored for Luso with Richard Crabbe (2) and Nick Bazeley replying.

But Crewkerne Rangers remain favourites to accompany Hawkchurch up into Division Two. Rangers took a step closer as Simon Denslow and Tom Fussell scored in a 2-0 win over Lyme Regis Bantams at the Davey Fort. Denslow's effort came after a weaving run that left five Seaside's defenders in his wake.

DIVISION FOUR
CHARD United Reserves clinched the Division Four title with a fine 5-0 at Waytown Hounds who completed an encouraging first season in the PSL.

The runners-up slot is still up for grabs with Farway United Reserves and Winsham United in the running. A hat-trick from Lewis Grant and a single from Darren Cooke in a 4-3 win over visiting Barrington Reserves took Farway up to second.

NEW FOOTBALL CLUB FOR CHARMOUTH?

A SECOND football club could be formed in Charmouth.

Charmouth Parish Council have been informed that the existing football club do not intend to run a reserve team next season and a request has been received from Mr John Smith asking for approval to run a new club and use the playing field facilities.

Charmouth FC's reserve team player-manager, Tony Gordon, confirmed that the club would not be running a second team next season. He said that despite having 64 players signed on, they failed to raise two teams on several occasions this season.

The council's Playing Field Committee have supported the new club but they will have to enter into an agreement that the existing club will have first rights over the use of the pitch and pavilion.

The new outfit will also have to give undertakings in respect of conduct and behaviour. Charmouth FC have struggled this season with their first team, managed by Mike Walton, made up mainly of players from outside the village, not winning a game in the Perry Street Premier Division and being relegated in Division One.

Charmouth Reserves finished bottom of Division Four.

Mr Smith tried to enter a team in the Perry Street League last season by using the facilities at Thorncombe but his application was rejected at the league's annual meeting when a team vacancy went to Waytown Hounds.

Lyme Regis Bowls

Lyme Regis men land 26-point haul

with Paul Moffitt

IT has been a good week for the men in their respective leagues. Lyme v Wimborne; Lyme A v Melcombe Regis; Lyme B v Wellworthy B, scoring 7, 9 and 10 points respectively. These early results augur well for the rest of the season.

The ladies took on Broadstone in the 'Top Club' competition, narrowly missing out on going through to the next round.

A special mention goes to Lesley Broom who excelled in the singles winning by a margin of 13 shots. Lyme managed to lose all the friendly games, including the game at Axminster where Lyme usually prevail.

The ladies open their league challenge this week when they travel to Gillingham. With the services of Lesley Broom, Clare Barber, Jill Wells and Helen Dowling this season, this ladies squad looks strong enough to make a challenge for the top slot.

WILDCATS EDGED OUT IN NORFOLK

National Speedway League
Sunday, May 16th

KING'S LYNN YOUNG STARS 47
WEYMOUTH WILDCATS 43

WEYMOUTH Weyline Wildcats put up a strong display at the Norfolk arena on Sunday evening in their National League encounter with King's Lynn Young Stars.

Although they narrowly missed out 47-43 they brought a league point back to the south coast. Wildcats team manager Jem Dicken said: "We had the rub of the green, the boy's did well and kept us in it and brought back a league point but they were unfortunate to lose McDade, and had Mallett been riding, we may not of had the point to take back with us."

Young Stars new signing Simon Lambert was the 'star' of the evening only dropping one point, to Bekker in heat 13. He was backed up well by Adam Lowe (11+1) but with rider replacement in operation for Darren Mallett, his scoring power was missed by the Young Stars.

Wildcats battled well with five race wins and 11 second places with the team under pressure covering the rider replacement rides for injured Tom Brown. Bekker top scored with 11+2 and was backed up well by Day who continues in good form with 10+1. Cockle (9) and Cottham after a slow start producing 8 points, gave the top four a solid look with reserves Andrews (2) and Lee chipping in with 3+3.

Wildcats have two weeks until their next fixture on the road to West Row in Suffolk, when they take on Mildenhall Fen Tigers. Dicken continued: "Too much pressure is on the boys and their machinery really while we are covering for Tom (Brown) which is why James "Cockle". He didn't take a rider replacement ride, because this would have meant he had two rides on the trot with a single engine.

Gary (Cottham) did well again after a bit of a shaky start. Terry (Day) and Byron (Bekker) both did very well and to be fair, our reserve Richard (Andrews) deserved more than he scored; he didn't ride bad at all. Nick (Lee) probably rode the best he has ridden, and in one of his rides he did really well."

This Friday (21st) the Wildcats take on a Bournemouth Buccaneers select side with ex-Wildcat Brendan Johnson pencilled in to cover for Mark Baseby who has agreed to double up with Somerset in the Premier League.

Mark Jones from Newport will act as cover for John Resch who is sitting an examination on Friday in Kent.

TROPHIES FLOODING INTO DAVEY FORT

PERRY STREET LEAGUE CHALLENGE CUP FINAL

Wednesday, May 12th at Forton Rangers
ILMINSTER TOWN RESERVES 0
LYME REGIS 2

LYME Regis had few scares as they brushed past a lack-lustre Ilminster Reserves side for the fourth time this season writes Howard Larcombe.

The Seaside's, competing in their fifth Challenge final in the last six seasons, stormed out of the blocks and put the Blues' goal under siege for much of the opening 20 minutes. Indeed Lyme could, and probably should, have been out of sight within the opening five minutes.

Seconds after the opening whistle Julien Simier saw his low effort tipped round the post. From the resulting corner the ball was half cleared to the waiting Mark Batey who drilled a low drive just past the upright. Soon after, top scorer Joe Bond, who has had better days in front of goal, shot wide when well placed.

Ilminster were clearly on the ropes but were hanging on. Lee Cleal joined the list of those in the 'could have' column in the 17th minute.

But the deadlock was finally broken in the 24th minute. Steve Batey, whose long throw-ins have been a major source of head-ache to most of the Seaside's opponents all season launched another effort into the area and Dom Rowe leapt highest to nod home his ninth goal of the campaign.

At the other end a speculative lob from Scott Jennings on the half-hour almost brought Ilminster level but keeper Ashley Caddy was relieved to see the ball bounce back off his cross-bar.

Seconds later Caddy flashed out his left hand to pull-off a superb reaction save low down to deny abrasive front-man Simon Manley.

The second-half saw Lyme, with the slope now at their backs, continue to dominate proceedings with Simier, Bond and Dave Robinson all going close.

The much deserved second goal finally arrived in the 66th minute when Adam Caddy chipped a cross over for Simier to glance home his 17th goal of his debut season in English football.

The game ended 12 minutes early following a leg injury to Dan Vining after a 50-50 challenge with Mark Batey.

Referee Richard Allen, clearly concerned for the youngsters well-being, summoned an ambulance and with a delay inevitable the well-beaten Ilminster players wisely agreed to consider the game completed.

Thankfully Vining, who has been one of the finds of the season, was up on his feet before too long.

The injury obviously put a slight dampener on the fine win. Steve Batey was the pick of the Lyme line-up closely followed by Rowe, Robinson and Ashley Caddy.

Referee: Richard Allen. Attendance: 150

BOB BUCKLER RACING

'FLOW LIFTS BUCKLER AFTER SEAVIEW DEBACLE

A VERY poor run by Seaview Lad in the first race at Newton Abbot on Monday had Bob Buckler cringing as the novice hurdler trailed home last after a very disappointing run.

"It was almost humiliating, he was so poor, and I don't have any real answer why at the moment."

However the Henley trainer was lifted in the very next race when Over The Flow won her maiden race over fences in fine style. After refusing in her first attempt at chasing at the first hurdle and then a mediocre run at the Newton Abbot two weeks ago, the 8-year-old mare showed her prowess by sweeping to the front and holding off Spirit of The Lake who was backed into 9/2jif with a rush of money on the course, comfortably by 1 ¾ lengths.

Buckler gave experienced Daryl Jacob the ride this time instead of his stable jockey Nathan Sweeney, and Jacob used all his expertise in bringing the 7/1 shot home.

The field went quick over the first few fences and after a couple of tentative jumps, she settled down just behind the leaders. Jacob brought her to challenge Spirit of the Lake a mile from home and the two pulled away from the rest of the field. She took the lead coming into the straight and held on comfortably.

"They went in a rush at the start but she settled down and jumped very well and got stronger towards the end. She will now be put out for the summer," said Buckler.

Ethiopia after his success at second success at Plumpton, again failed to show the form at Stratford on Sunday and finished in the pack.

"I've come to the conclusion that his two bad runs were on flat, fast tracks in Soutwell and Stratford, whilst Plumpton is an undulating course more suited to the local terrain where we are. I hope this may be the answer, as he wasn't in any distress at the end and was galloping on, and so he will not be running on quick tracks in the future."

Another success was River Indus who after getting caught for pace in the middle of the 3 mile Betfair Chase at Exeter, came strongly at the end to easily claim second behind winner Ballycarney.

"He ran well, a bit outpaced in the middle, but came again well. He will now go at Towcester on Friday," said Buckler.

Flag Flier in her first run since November was a little disappointing over hurdles at the same meeting.

Buckler said: "It's her first run for a while and was a little rusty and she needed it. Hopefully she will run better next time."

Cullahill hopes to do better at Worcester tonight than he did at Exeter last month when he pulled up.

SOPHIE SPARKLES IN ENGLISH CHAMPIONSHIP

Junior Medal Competition

Saturday, May 15th

IN almost perfect weather conditions with only a light breeze and with firm fairways and consistent greens, the Lyme Junior section staged their May Medal event.

As always some familiar names filled the leading positions on the results board. In particular Kai To Li returned an excellent two under net par 69 to achieve first place and a further reduction of his handicap to 16.5.

Second place was taken by Brad Burnham (28) with a net 77. In third place was George Seed (11) with a net 78.

May Stableford

WEATHER and course conditions could not have been more different the following day for the May Stableford event when a steady downpour of rain throughout not only made it difficult to see the ball in the air and on the fairway but the light film of water made the greens very quick for the time of year.

In view of the conditions the field was somewhat depleted and those who did play met with varying degrees of success. One who did manage to conquer the conditions was division one winner Richie Yorke who, yet to achieve his 18th birthday, made full use of an early birthday present to drive long and true off the tee and achieve an exceptional score of 40 points playing off a handicap of 8.

Richie matched his excellent tee shots with consistent fairway play and putting to complete the first nine holes in level gross par.

In second place was former club captain and noted steady player Jim Allan (7) with 37 points. In third place, on countback, was Warren Madill (13) also with 37 points. Division two was also a close contest with Barry Dennis (25) narrowly winning with 38 points over Jim Dick (21) with 37. In third place with 36 points was David Jones.

Seniors v Taunton & Pickeringide

MONDAY saw yet another change in the weather with temperatures in the mid teens and only a light South Westerly wind blowing.

Also the fairways were firm and the greens consistent after the rain of the day before. Whilst the Lyme team may have been confident with home advantage, the visitors from Taunton battled bravely and with one of the matches going to the last putt to achieve a result the match was all square at the end of the day.

Both teams now look forward to the return at the Taunton course in June.

English Women's Close

Amateur Championship 2010

SOPHIE Keach from Lyme Regis played in the English Women's Close Amateur Championship held on May 11th to 15th at Broadstone for ladies with a handicap of 6.4 or under.

After two 18-hole qualifying rounds, Sophie, playing off six, amazed everyone by coming 28th, and making the cut which was 32 out of 55.

The following day she was drawn against the eventual winner, Hayley Davis who plays for Dorset and England and plays off +2.

Sophie knew that she had a fight on her hands but after the ninth was only one down, Sophie birdied the two hardest holes on the course and played her best round yet with a score of 76.

Hayley won on the 17th; 2/1 but commented on how well Sophie played and said she gave her a great fight. Sophie obviously was gutted that she lost but as she is just 14 and this is English Ladies, surely she is destined for a great future.

She says she owes her recent improvement to her coach Karen Nicholls from Millfield and to the support she receives from members of Lyme Regis Golf Club. Winner: Hayley Davis: Ferndown. Runner up: Tara Watters: Muswell Hill, Middlesex ◆ Lyme Regis Ladies Interclub team lost to Sherbourne away 6.5/5 The Beals team lost to Ferndown at home 2/5.

Barr lands Cuckoo Wrasse

West Bay Sea Angling

Boat Festival Cup

NINE competitors signed on to fish the Boat Festival Cup despite a very cold wind (northerly 4-5) blowing. Four boats set out from West Bay under cloudy skies but six species; plaice, dogfish, pout, wrasse, pollock and gurnard were caught.

Many of the fish were weighed on board the boats then released back alive which is now permissible; as long as the scales used to weigh the fish are certified and you have a witness all boat competitors can now weigh and release their fish.

Graham Stephenson won the Heaviest bag with 3kg 967g of fish, with three competitors all catching three of the species. However Steve Harwood was declared the winner on the tie break.

James Barr's cuckoo wrasse weighing 495g (87%) won the Best specimen prize.

Junior competition

FISH were yet again in short supply with only 15 caught between the six members and one guest that signed on. Once again ragworm on a size four or six hook was the best bait that attracted flounder, shanny and wrasse, which were all returned to the water alive.

Oliver Mears was first with 556g and also had the heaviest round fish, a 111g corkwing wrasse. Guest Oliver Dowding was second with 199g and the heaviest flat fish, an 83g flounder.

Kieran Ellison was third with 112g whilst Connor Hallett won the wooden spoon.

Prizes were donated by The Old Watchhouse Cafe, Kay Guppy and Tiny.

Shipton Gorge race to title

AFTER putting themselves in a strong position with a maximum win over the Civil Service at Wyke Regis, Shipton reclaimed the League Championship for a third time in four years with a decisive win over last year's champions, Springfield, who can now only achieve second place.

Civil Service A 7 Shipton Gorge A 30

Neil Richards offered some resistance by taking Chris Glover and Gil Roberts to 2-3 but there was little more for the home side to cheer about as Glover, Roberts and Richard Trim went on to win all their games and condemn the Servants to a relegation place at the foot of the table.

Springfield A 16 Shipton Gorge A 24

DEREK Woods, unbeaten at number one for the home side, was given an early taste of what was to come when Gil Roberts took him to five sets in the first game of the night.

Then, with Richard Trim beating Jon Bissett 3-0 and Chris Glover avenging an early season defeat against Gordon Bissett by the same margin, the determination of the visitors to finish the season in style was apparent.

Woods tried to recover the situation but first Trim by 3-1 and then Glover 3-2 inflicted unfamiliar defeats on the home talisman.

Jon Bissett sparked a revival with a 3-1 win over Roberts but was eventually edged out 3-2 by Glover and when Gordon Bissett succumbed 1-3 to Roberts the title had been decided and the loss of the doubles 0-3 by Trim and Roberts was academic.

Devon League 1st XI Division D
Uplyme & LR 223-6 drew with Feniton 302-5 dec.
UPLYME & Lyme Regis, still missing a number of key players embroiled in Lyme Regis Football club's successful Championship campaign, fought hard for a losing draw at Feniton at the weekend.

After slipping to 21-2 a superb unbeaten century from Mark Kingdon, allied to 85 from skipper Adrian Pullin elevated the hosts to an imposing 302 from 45 overs.

Most successful of the visiting bowling attack was paceman Jamie Toates who returned figures of 2 for 65 from a dozen overs.

In reply, Sam Challis was snapped up by Pullin early on off Pyle. But fellow opener Rob Thom dug deep to forge partnerships of 45 with Jedd Whittington (26) and 101 with Mark Brimacombe (48). Thom was finally dismissed for a superb 72 with the score at 188, before an unbroken seventh wicket stand of 31 between Jack Lamb-Wilson (30no) and Mike Holding (10no) saw Uplyme through to the draw.

Devon League 2nd XI Division C
Uplyme & Lyne Regis 164 all out beat Thorvorton 118 all out by 44 runs.
A POOR start to the season was soon forgotten as the runs came quickly for Uplyme & Lyne Regis 2nds at the KGV Playing fields thanks to fine batting displays from Eddie Clarke and David Jones who formed a fine platform with an opening partnership of 59 writes Paul Crompton.

Skipper Clarke went on to strike a fine 61 as the hosts, helped by a hard hitting performance by Steve Batey (27), posted a total of 164 all out, not helped by a crumbling lower order.

In reply the visitors racked up 29 runs before Batey (3-51) claimed the first wicket, sparking a collapse which saw them reeling at 61 for 6. A late order resistance saw them pass the 100 mark, but good bowling displays, including an economical display by Neil Price (4 for 28) completed a gutsy win as, the visitors were dismisseded in 33 overs for 118.

Dorset Funeral Plan League
DORCHESTER finally got their season underway after two rained off fixtures and did it in style with a comfortable six wicket win over Weymouth at Redlands. Dan Belt (4-22) skittled out the Seaside's top order to leave them 45-5 as the hosts struggled to 141 all out before Dave Maslen scored an unbeaten 61 to give Dorchester victory with 18 overs to spare.

The win puts Dorchester joint top of the Premier League but leaves Weymouth struggling one off the bottom.

Beaminster are still looking for their first win after suffering their third consecutive loss in Division One and are firmly rooted to the bottom. Weymouth 2nds tasted defeat for the first time, losing to Corfe Mullen which leaves them in mid-table.

Dorchester 2nds had a narrow one wicket victory over Compton House whilst the county town's 3rd's had a comfortable 107 run win over Bridport 2nd's with 15-year-old John Legg hitting a superb 65 on his debut.

Martinstown are cock-a-hoop after recording their first victory on their new grass wicket at Ashton Field. They beat Suttoners 2nds by 6 wickets.

Abbotsbury and Beaminster 2nds share one thing in common - no win this season. Both sides lost their third games on Saturday.

After two opening victories Bridport lost their first of the campaign, going down to Cranborne.

Weymouth 3rds after two blank opening weeks, got their season underway with an easy nine wicket win over Corfe Mullen 2nds.

Symene found it third time unlucky. Following two home victories they stalled going down by six wickets to Pokedown Willows whilst Broadwindors' match at Hardington & West Coker was the only one cancelled because of the weather.

Premier League
Weymouth 141 all out lost to Dorchester 142-4 by six wickets
Dorchester got their season underway with a crushing win over local rivals Weymouth at Redlands where Dan Belt and Dave Maslen starred.

Dan Belt (4-22) effectively won this derby clash by removing the top four Weymouth batsmen in a devastating spell of bowling as the Seaside's were reduced to 54-5 at drinks, before Maslen piled on the agony with an unbeaten 61 as Dorchester coasted home with eighteen overs to spare.

Belt had Weymouth skipper Paul Payne caught by Phil Morley with only the second ball of the match. He struck again with the score on 17 having Jim Ryall (13) caught at slip by Dorchester captain Martyn Richards, and next ball Dean Janaway was caught behind by Paul Tweddle for a golden duck to leave the hosts on 17-3.

Andy Bray was very close to making it a hat trick for Belt, but the former Seaside then added Tom England to his haul, once again caught behind by Tweddle.

Xenon Ellis then bowled Bray (10), before teenager Will McKay (31) making his debut and Matt Lawes (23) stemmed the tide with a sixth wicket stand of 59.

However they became the first victims of debutant Andy Mead (3-30), who to rub salt into the wound is a teacher at Budmouth School, and with Pete Moxom claiming 2-20 they were finally dismissed for 141.

Weymouth had an early success when Dorchester replied, Their new Kiwi Andrew Falloon trapping Moxom leg before for 3 with 14 on the board. But fellow opener Rob Waite with an excellent 30, and Maslen added 78 for the second wicket before McKay also found success with the ball having Waite caught by Bray.

Belt added 16 and Tweddle (2) before Maslen put them out of their misery.

Richards said: "We were confident despite the fact we had been thwarted by the weather, and I think it made all the lads that much more motivated. We wanted to field first to give us a feeling of pitching in together as a team and the lads responded with a superb show." "Dan Belt and Rob Waite bowled tremendously well and restricted Weymouth scoring early on and Dan's four wickets really set us up. The whole team bowled well as a unit and our ground fielding was fantastic; I couldn't have asked for more.

"Dave Maslen was a cut above everyone when we batted. He was his usual self; reliable, completely unflustered and calm and just waited until the right ball came along. Rob also gave a solid performance and help set us up.

"Andrew Falloon gave us one or two problems and looks a good bowler, but on the day we were well worth the win."

Maslen will be looking forward to the return having scored 89 not out last season in the corresponding fixture, whilst Weymouth will be sick of the sight of him.

Division One
Beaminster 213 all out lost to Winton Sports 253-9 by 40 runs
BEAMINSTER crashed to their third defeat of the season against newly promoted Winton Sports.

The hosts won the toss and elected to field under sunny skies and on a good wicket, and an excellent opening bowling burst by Paul Martin (3-37) put Winton under immediate pressure. Swinging the ball and bowling at pace he caused problems for all of their batsmen, and he was well supported by Hacon Edgley (3-37) who bowled unchanged up the hill.

Winton were struggling at 81-5 after 20 overs, but a sixth wicket stand of 83 between Willard (54) and Sanderson (60 not out) punishing any poor deliveries and aided by dropped catches and a lack of variety in the bowling, put the visitors in control.

Simon Jones (11-31) and Ross Baker (2-51) picked up wickets, but despite smart catches from Chris Park and Edgley and good ground fielding from Martin, Sanderson supported by Garrett (9 not out) added 64 for the ninth wicket to close on 253-9.

In reply, Nick David struggled against the new ball and was bowled for just a single, but an excellent second wicket partnership put Beaminster on top as Simon Wakely played some lovely shots supported well by Park.

However Wakely (24) was out to a loose shot and Hillier quickly departed as Winton's opening bowlers caused problems. However once they had finished their spells Park and Jones looked comfortable, but Winton regrouped at the drinks interval, and took three wickets including Park (41) and Jones (19).

Ross Baker (23) and Joe Hawkins (17) batted well together and played some great shots, and once they had departed Winton thought the game was over. However, Martin completed an excellent all round display by hitting a quick fire 43, well supported by Andrew Sherring (20 not out) and they managed to push the score beyond the 200 mark in a stand of 59 before Martin was caught on the boundary to give Winton victory by 40 runs.

Corfe Mullen 198-7 beat Weymouth 2nd 180 all out by 18 runs
A WEAKENED Weymouth 2nd's just failed to overhaul Corfe Mullen, falling 18 runs short of their target.

A fourth wicket stand of 91 between Mike Weston (44) and Neil Stannard (71) set up the victory; Weymouth skipper Jim Ryan bagging both players to help restrict the hosts to 198-7 in their allotted overs. Teenager Cameron Armfield gave good support claiming 2-15 in his five overs.

Weymouth struggled in reply and were 57-5 before Chris Lawes (26) joined Andy Jarvis, who was persuaded to come out of retirement to help, and they added 58 for the sixth wicket. Jarvis eventually departed for an excellent 65 amassed over almost three hours, and despite contributions from Chris Allen (17) and Graham Puckett (15) they fell short of their host's total.

Division Two
Dorchester 2nd 170-9 beat Compton House 169-9 by 1 wicket

Division Three
Bridport 162 all out lost to Cranborne 181 all out by 19 runs
DESPITE a valiant sixth wicket stand of 80 between skipper Sam Good and his predecessor Chris Backhouse, Bridport suffered their first defeat of the season.

Excellent bowling from the hosts restricted Cranborne to a total of 181 all out, with Backhouse claiming four wickets, and Liam Toohill, Ashley Parker and Dom Gape a brace each.

Good was happy chasing the total. "We bowled really well and I was pleased with them as a unit. Ashley Nicholls was probably the pick of some very good bowling but did not reap any reward for it."

Cranborne's bowling was equally as good, and Bridport not only found it hard to score but also lost wickets that at drinks they had barely reached 50 with five wickets down. Good and Backhouse set about restoring the situation, punishing any loose ball as they edged nearer their target and even when the skipper went for 36, it looked as if Bridport might pull off a win as long as Backhouse remained. Unfortunately he perished, caught on the boundary for an excellent 60, and despite some good rearguard action from the tail they couldn't quire make it.

Good added: "They bowled equally as well with some very tight lines and we found it hard to get the ball off the square and were well behind at drinks. Chris and I decided to go for it and see what happens and it was unfortunate that when he was out we only needed around 40 from ten overs."

Martinstown 173-4 beat Suttoners 2nd 172-8 by six wickets
MARTINSTOWN claimed a resounding victory over Suttoners 2nds on Saturday to maintain their challenge at the top of the fledgling tables on what proved a historic day for the club in regards to the unveiling of their new grass wickets at Ashton Field.

Having been thwarted by rain in their opening fixture of the season, winning the toss meant home skipper Nick Quintrell was faced with a dilemma whether to bat or field. "With the wicket being an unknown quantity I was hoping to lose the toss to avoid the embarrassment of making the wrong call, but the consensus in the team was to put them in despite the wicket looking hard and flat. At 70 odd without loss I was beginning to question the validity of player power but the team stuck in and eventually turned it around for us."

Suttoners openers made steady progress against excellent (if somewhat luckless) opening spells from Chris Read and Matt Camp who generated good bounce and carry from the debutant wicket, however it fell to first change Danny Dancer (2-39) to prise Broadbent from the crease for 36 with the score on 71.

The host's success was short lived however, as opener Davis (69) and Martin (25) compiled a diligent stand of 74 for the second wicket before the introduction of Matt Rimmer into the attack.

Martinstown's 'pocket rocket' wrought havoc in the visitor's ranks dismissing both in claiming 6-21 from seven imperious overs which swung the game back in his teams favour and saw Suttoners plunge from 144-1 to 151-6 before closing their innings on 172-8 in their allotted overs.

In reply openers Lee House (21) and Ed Nichols (18) set about the Suttoners attack with immediate relish as they generally bowled too short, encouraged by the pace and bounce in the wicket.

Henry Lewis and Conor Ross wrapped up the game in a nerveless and measured stand of 118, both falling for identical scores of 51 with the game tied, leaving seasoned campaigner Robert O'Brien to knock off the single run required for victory in the 34th over of the response.

Quintrell added: "Although the word is over used this truly was a momentous day in our clubs history with the launch of the second's into league cricket, and the realisation of natural wickets at Ashton after so many hours of toil to get them laid and ready - and I don't think that the lads were of a mind to allow a defeat to put a dampener on the day. The whole team are enormously indebted to Jim Godding, John O'Brien, Jon Nichols and head grounds man Paul House for providing us with such a fantastic pitch upon which it is a real privilege to play."

Division Four
Beaminster 2nd 122 all out lost to Kingston Lacy by six wickets
BEAMINSTER travelled to Kingston Lacy with just 10 players, four of whom arrived after the start time. The hosts won the toss and put Beaminster into bat.

Hugh Rathbone and Stuart Lindsay were forced to open the batting, and put on a steady 44 before the first wicket fell.

Again there were no other major partnerships as a steady flow of wickets were lost, leaving the visitors on 122 all out after 42 overs.

Huth Rathbone top scored with 26, with Brian Earl 24 and James Ridd 12 the only other players to reach double figures.

In the field, Beaminster struggled to take their chances. Some poor fielding and attacking batsmen meant Kingston Lacy chased down the total with relative ease, and reached the target of 123 for the loss of four wickets in the 27th over. Joe Singleton was the pick of the attack continuing his impressive start to the season with 2-34, and there was a wicket apiece for Lindsay and Murray Legg.

This week, with a number of players returning for the first team who have been unavailable in recent weeks, Beaminster are hopeful of being able to field a stronger team.

Division Five
Weymouth 3rd 109-1 beat Corfe Mullen2nd 107 all out by 9 wickets
AFTER two blank Saturday's Weymouth 3rds finally got their season underway with a convincing nine wicket win over Corfe Mullen 2nd's.

Division Six
Wareham 365-5 beat Abbotsbury 128 all out by 237 runs
ABBOTSBURY were well beaten at Wareham to continue their poor start to the season.

Dorchester 3rd 218-9 beat Bridport 2nd 111 all out by 107 runs
DORCHESTER 3rds maintained their winning start to the season with an emphatic 107 run victory over local rivals Bridport 2nd's. Stars of the show were 15-year-old debutant John Legg who produced a batting display beyond his years scoring 65 runs and capturing two wickets in his five over spell and George Chubb who contributed 48 not out.

Dorchester were invited to bat on a warm afternoon and after a careful start, acting captain Jae Miller and John Legg soon found the boundary on regular occasions and brought up their 50 run partnership in only the ninth over. Miller was the first wicket to fall, two short of a century stand for 42.

However Dan White with 3-24 put the brakes on as a flurry of wickets fell to leave Dorchester reeling on 137-5 including Legg who edged a good ball from Tuck through to the wicket keeper. His timing of the ball made batting look easy and included seven fours and an enormous six which disappeared out of the ground and required a new ball!

It was the dependable Chubb and Jamie Quinton who held the middle order together and patiently went about adding 60 runs to the Dorchester total before Quinton (18) succumbed to an excellent caught and bowled by the returning Ed Halson(2-54) with the score on 196-6. It was left to Chubb to see the innings through to its conclusion with an excellent undefeated 48 not out, whose defence was solid, but in the last few overs he pulled and drove the ball with classical style.

The Bridport innings got off to a poor start when Nigel Toohill was caught and bowled by Mitchem off a leading edge without scoring in the very first over. The visitors found the impeccable line and length of the Dorchester opening bowlers Mitchem and Mat King (2-18) hard to score from, and it was not long before both Churchill and Lings fell to King with the score on 42-3.

The introduction of Legg produced two brilliant diving catches from King and Miller to leave Bridport struggling at 65-4. Captain Will Good (22) and Rod Gay (18) tried to repair the damage but the introduction of young off spinner Sam Roles (3-29) brought an end to Good as he was bamboozled by the flight and spin and was neatly stumped by Quinton, and the same combination saw the end of Gay with the score on 80-8.

A quick fire 17 from Halson pushed the Bridport score past the 100 run mark but it was fitting for Chubb to take the final wicket in only the 29th over to claim maximum points.

Sunday Division Four
Symene 145 all out lost to Pokedown Willows 149-4 by six wickets
After two good wins, Symene were hoping to make it a hat trick against one of the weaker sides in the league. However they failed to make the most of a good start and then paid the price with some poor work in the field.

Batting first Symene were going along well at 70-1 when a middle order collapse saw them reduced to 104-7.

Nigel Toohill (20) and Phil Hawkins (18) had helped top scorer Colin Willcox with 40 to a reasonable platform to build from, but only Graham Bartlett (29) with support from Tom Higham who helped add 30 for the last wicket, scored enough in a total of 145 all out.

Pokedown captain Butcher (62) and his fellow opener (42 not out) put on 90 for the first wicket in reply, thanks to the home fielders who dropped them three times in total.

Although Willcox 3-28 off 11 overs and Bartlett 1-36 off 12 slowed Pokedown down when they came on, they could not stop the visitors easily making the required runs with seven overs left.

NO SUCCESS FOR LOCAL TEAMS IN LYCHETT SEVENS

THE annual Lychett Sevens which involves both hockey and rugby tournament's is often a happy hunting ground for local sides, but not this year.

Weymouth Rugby Club battled their way to the semi-finals but were beaten by eventual runners-up Gosport & Fareham.

A good solid performance against the eventual winners Upton Misfits gave them a very easy 54-0 win in the round robin matches, with good attacking play by Stephen Calbraith, Adam Hoxey and Nathan Allan. The best moment of the game saw prop Lian Berry run the full length of the pitch to score and then convert his own try.

They then beat Winchester University 31-14 with a great comeback after going behind to two quick tries by Ryan Lewendon scoring a fantastic try after side-stepping two defenders to run the length of the pitch to score in the corner.

However the Seasiders lost their third match to hosts Lychett, which saw brothers Ian and Lee MacConnachie playing against each other for the first time. Lychett claimed victory 7-0 with the only try of the match although Weymouth did have one disallowed.

Despite some good defence from Dave Allen and Dave Oakford, the Weymouth squad they went down to a well organised Gosport and Fareham team 20-0 in the semi-final.

Beaminsters Ladies Hockey Club fared little better, although having not qualified for the knockout stages of the cup they played in the plate competition which they won.

In the round robin matches on Sunday they won and drew one of their four matches with mother/daughter Ruth and Danielle Donovan scoring five goals between them.

They were strengthened on the Monday by the addition of Jacqueline Gape and Nicola Wright and won their semi-final plate match against Poole when Wright scored the only goal of the game in the first half with a powerful strike into the top left corner of the goal. Despite second half pressure from Poole they were denied by a Beaminsters defence in which Carol Pearson proved strong.

The final against Cheeky Bird's (CB's) went to penalty flicks after a 2-2 draw.

Gape gave Beaminsters the lead with a brilliant goal; dribbling the ball from the right side before beating the keeper at the near post, and Wright added her second of the tournament to take the game to penalty flicks.

Rachel Andrews was the hero saving the first four CB's efforts before Wright added to Gape's successful conversion to win the match.

Bridport Juniors take Dorchester FC six-a-side title

BRIDPORT Football club's under 12s entered two teams in the recent competitive Dorchester Town Football Club 6-a-side tournament with their Juniors team winning the overall winners.

The second side Town won one of their four matches but failed to qualify for the semi-finals but Juniors won three of theirs and topped their group.

A close fought 1-0 semi final win against Olddown Crusaders set up a final with the talented Dorchester Raiders.

The Juniors were 2-0 down within five minutes but two goals from Liam Sayers levelled the tie. Sayers, Rhys Hayter, Lewis Middleton and Dylan Allen all scored their penalties in the shoot out and Joe Mace-McKenney saved the crucial penalty for a deserved tournament victory.

Sam Keating, Kyle Napier and Charlie Morgan made up the winning team with vital contributions throughout the day.

Future Olympic stars compete for Jaffa

WEYMOUTH & PORTLAND NATIONAL SAILING ACADEMY

FUTURE Olympic sailors were on show last week during the Jaffa Asymmetric Cup held at Weymouth and Portland National Sailing Academy when the five boats in the 29er's were all crewed by members of the Great Britain team selected for the Volvo Youth Section ISAF World Championships to be held in Istanbul in July.

All under 18-year-old, Henry Lloyd Williams and Sam Batten from Lymington won the event with three wins from their six races. Lilly Carlisle and Ben Grattan finished second ahead of fellow Draycote members Philippa Gray and Joanna Lucas.

Dan Ward from Frensham Ponds&Sbcs won all six races to take the Musto Skiffs title, whilst David Hayes and Richie Bell won the B14s when winning four of their six races.

BRIDPORT ADD SMITH TO MANAGEMENT TEAM

BRIDPORT have confirmed that Dougie Smith will be joining them as the club's fitness coach.

For Smith, who lives in Bridport, it will be his second spell with the club having originally spent a season under Royston Davies in 2006-2007 before moving to Axminster Town to assist Ray Self.

Manager Trevor Senior said: "I'm delighted Dougie is joining us, he is a good addition to the team, and is very professional and well organised. He will work mainly with the first team on fitness but will also help support the reserves and third team as well.

"The idea of having Dougie with us is good. Although a lot of the younger lads are already fairly fit, as was seen last season when despite the number of games we had to play late on the lads fitness levels were still quite good, but if we can steel a march on our opponents by being fitter than the other sides then it will benefit us."

"He will also be an asset in helping players like Matty Moors, who is having an operation on May 25th, back to fitness where he can have some personal rehab."

Senior also confirmed that former White

Horse manager Ian Pinkham will be assisting Jason Forbes in running the 3rd team next season.

It is also understood that Matt Condliffe is looking to go pre-season training with Weymouth, and that the Terras boss Ian Hutchinson has approached Dan Wise in regards to a switch to the Zameretto Premier League side next term. "I don't want to stand in anyone's way of improving themselves, although I am hopeful that both players will stay with us," said Senior.

Senior has also received a couple of calls from players who have asked to attend pre-season training.

"This is encouraging and I am always looking to look at anyone who wants to play for us. We don't want to stand still and welcome fresh faces so if there is anyone who would like to come along they can contact me on 07771903795."

RELIEF FOR TERRAS - NO ZAMERETTO PREMIER LEAGUE POINTS PENALTY

WEYMOUTH will only be relegated one division and will not start with a 10 point penalty as was expected.

Having entered a CVA to rid themselves of 91 per cent of their debts the Terras board were expecting to receive a ten point penalty for next season regardless of which league they would be playing in. There was also some doubt as to whether they would be relegated just one division or indeed two to Division One South & West.

The Terras received the good news on Monday and it lifted the whole club including manager Ian Hutchinson.

"It's wonderful news that we will be playing in the Zameretto Premier League, as we want to playing at the highest level we can; whilst the news of no points penalty is an added bonus and absolutely fantastic news.

"Although it means we will start on an even keel with everyone else, we must not kid ourselves it will be easy because it won't. We are under no illusions; there are a lot of good teams in the league."

Asked if it would help attract a better calibre of player, Hutch added: "I hope so. As I said everyone wants to play at the highest level they can and so there are some players who will be more willing to play for us in the Premier League, that's for certain."

It looks as if Hutch's hopes of bringing a new central defender to the club have been dashed.

"It looks dead in the water I'm afraid, although I will be ringing him today to confirm."

In the meantime Hutch and his assistant Andy Mason continue to scour the country looking for new players. The confirmation of the league might help but we are on an extremely tight budget so it will be hard."

MAGPIES TO RECEIVE A VISIT BY PALACE

CRYSTAL Palace, who narrowly avoided relegation from the Championship this season will be bringing a side to The Avenue for a pre-season friend on Wednesday July 28th (ko 7.45pm)

The Eagles only avoided the drop by drawing 2-2 with Sheffield Wednesday on the final day of the season which sent The Owls down instead.

Dorchester Town who return for pre-season training on July 3rd have already lined up other home friendlies against Crawley Town on Friday July 16th (7.45pm) and the following day (Saturday 17th) against Dagenham & Redbridge (ko 3pm) as part of the deal that took Phil Walsh's to the League Two club earlier this year.

Their only away fixture to date is at Zameretto Division One South & West side VT on Tuesday July 27th.

It is hoped the Magpies will also entertain

AFC Bournemouth and Yeovil Town in other friendlies.

SEASIDERS ARE CROWNED CHAMPIONS

A 2-1 WIN at Barrington on Saturday means Lyme Regis have clinched the Perry Street League Premier Division title for the fifth time. Skipper Adam Caddy and Julien Simier scored the goals in the midday sunshine at the impressive Shelway Lane Ground.

Few can deny that The Seaside, currently on an amazing 19 league game unbeaten run, fully deserved to land their first Championship in six seasons. Indeed Saturday's victory means Robin's Townsend's side have become the first ever Lyme Regis team to win the 'big three' - the Coronation Cup, the Challenge Cup and the League title - a feat not witnessed throughout the entire League since the legendary Shepton Beauchamp side from 1984-85.

In addition, winger Lee Cleal became only the second Lyme Regis footballer, after Ellis Hoole, to win two Premier Division winners medals.
